BACKS MARSHALL. In Los Angeles, Senator Robert A. Taft (R), Ohio, tells newsmen he agrees in principle with Secretary of State George C. Marshall's declaration that the UN should halt the threat to Greek independence by Russia's Balkan satellites.

REDS DEMAND ITALIAN POSTS

Clamor for Premier's Resignation and Redistribution of Cabinet Portfolios.

By The United Press

ROME, Sept. 18—The Communists demanded outright for the first time today that Christian Democrat Premier Alcide de Gasperi quit and make way for a cabinet with Communists and left-wing Socialist members.

The pieces of the leftist program of strikes, threats of strikes, mutterings of force and a national "day of protest" against the De Gasperi government tomorrow fell into place. It was the buildup for a vote on a motion of non-confidence in the government next week in the assembly.

Luigi Longo, chief lieutenant to Moscow-schooled Communist leader Palmiro Togliatti, said the demonstrations scheduled for tomorrow were intended to "denounce to public opinion" the De Gasperi cabinet. De Gasperi, on the strength of the Marshall and Truman plans, turned Communists and Socialists out of his cabinet 14 weeks ago.

He said the Communist objective was to produce a government "not of a single party or single class as now but a government representation of all parties without the exclusion of anyone truly democratic and republican and with the adequate representation above all of those parties like the Communists and Socialists, which everything, even the most recent events, indicates are the most authoritative and sincere representatives of the great working masses."

De Gasperi ousted the Communists and Socialists because of their constant bickering in the cabinet and because they promoted strikes and agitation that were felt to be intended deliberately to keep Italy from recovering.

There was hope that the last big strike the Communists started, that of 1,300,000 farm workers in the northern provinces would soon be settled. De Gasperi had succeeded in bringing union and management representatives together in conference.

LaGuardia's Condition Takes Downward Trend

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 18—Fiorello H. LaGuardia, 64, is in a "downward" trend in his grave illness, his physician reported today, as New Yorkers prayed at the request of Mayor William O'Dwyer for the little man who was the city's mayor for 12 years.

Dr. George Baehr said the former mayor and director general of UNRRA "again is in a deep sleep. The general trend is downward and the immediate outcome is as yet unpredictable."

An operation performed on LaGuardia June 18 "confirmed a previous clinical diagnosis of an inoperable condition in the pancreas," Dr. Baehr said. LaGuardia collapsed Tuesday night and has remained at his home.

NAMED FOR STORM

TOKYO, Sept. 18—An American baby born just as Tokyo's lights went out with the arrival of a typhoon Monday night has been named Kathleen—the name given the typhoon by the weather bureau. Kathleen is the daughter of M/Sgt. and Mrs. William H. Bell of Fort Mitchell, Ky.

Tense UN Delegations Await Russia's Reply To U. S. Attack On Soviet Policy, Veto Abuse

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 18—The United Nations assembly met in a tense atmosphere today awaiting the first Soviet rebuttal to the slashing attack made on Russia yesterday by Secretary of State George C. Marshall.

As the second day of general debate opened word quickly spread that Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky would deliver Russia's basic policy speech about 3 p. m.

A Russian spokesman said the Soviet chief delegate was ready to deliver his postponed — and amended—speech this afternoon but offered no advance indication as to its contents or length.

Russia was generally expected to return Marshall's attack and reject his proposal for overhauling the deadlocked UN peace machinery.

Marshall Plan Assailed

Opposition to the Marshall plan for a special year-around 55-nation security committee of the general assembly developed meanwhile from an unexpected quarter. Australian Deputy Delegate Col. W. R. Hodgson called the proposal "unconstitutional" in an off the floor comment.

Australia, as one of the leading opponents of the big power veto, had been expected to welcome the Marshal proposal since its primary purpose was to provide machinery which would in effect bypass the veto.

Vishinsky was absent as the general debate was resumed with Chilean Delegate Jose Maza leading off. Marshall was in his seat early. He followed the speeches attentively, wearing earphones clamped over his head.

At UN headquarters there was even speculation over whether Russia would pull out of the world organization if the Marshall proposals prevailed

Leaders of all UN assembly delegations were awaiting with keen expectation Russia's answer to the American proposition which calls for creation of a special new security committee by the veto-free general assembly. The U. S. delegation asked UN Secretary-General Trygve Lie last night to add the Marshall scheme to the current agenda

The answer was scheduled to be given by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky either today or in the immediate future.

Rally to U. S. Support

Many of the small nation delegations appeared to be rallying to support the American plan and while the positions of France and Britain were yet to be disclosed diplomats expected they would go along with the United States

What may prove to be a first test vote on the American moves to get around the Russian veto, as it is used in the security council, came last night in a meeting of the general assembly's powerful 14-member steering committee. Up for decision was an American proposal—in line with Marshall's speech yesterday—that the assembly should consider and act upon the Greek-Balkans dispute.

Andrei Gromyko, Russian committee member, argued against this proposal. He contended that assembly action would only further "aggravate" the differences between Greece and her Soviet-satellite neighbors — Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania.

Gromyko also charged that American aid to Greece "is not economic but military and it is this aid that has led to inflammation of civil war in Greece"

American Delegate Warren Austin replied if Russia wanted the Greek case stricken from the

PARTY GROUP TO MEET HERE

Ohio Democratic Women To Hold Convention Friday and Saturday.

All roads will lead to Marion for Democratic women of the state Friday and Saturday when local Democratic women will be hostesses for the two-day meeting of the Federated Democratic Women of Ohio. Headquarters for the convention will be at Hotel Harding where reservations have been made for approximately 400 women for the Saturday luncheon.

The meeting will get under way with registration tomorrow morning and the opening session will be at 2:30 o'clock when Mrs. Harry Armstrong, president of Marion county Democratic Women's organization, will give the address of welcome. Business will include the election of officers. The slate of officers will be presented at a business session Friday night and voting will be held throughout Saturday morning The polls will be closed at 1 p. m.

Friday night has been designated as "Marion Night" and a program of music and other entertainment will be featured.

Speakers for the two day meeting will include women prominent in national and state work. For the luncheon Saturday the speaker will be Miss Genevieve Blatt, a Pittsburgh attorney and president of the Young Democratic Clubs of Pennsylvania. She is a member of the speakers bureau of the Women's Division, Democratic National Committee and is considered one of the best informed women in the organization.

Mrs. Marygeorge Watkins of Kent, president of the state organization, will preside.

TYPICAL MALES

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, Sept. 18—The more manly Male club has named General Dwight Eisenhower, radio singer Jack Smith and movie actor Burt Lancaster as typical examples of real American manhood. Miss Helen Ennis of Boston, who identified herself as national president of the organization, said it liked "men who are men, masculine men, virile men, not the kind who need mothering."

RAIL UNIONS STUDY 30-CENT PAY APPEAL

By The United Press

CLEVELAND, Sept. 18—Wage committees of the five railroad operating brotherhoods met here today to determine joint action on a pay increase demand with the two largest carrier unions on record as favoring a 30-cents hourly wage boost.

A. F. Whitney, president of the BRT, said the 30-cent boost in pay would give operating railroad employes the buying power they had in May 1946 when they got a 18½ cent an hour increase after a nationwide strike tied up the carriers. He called the increase necessary to offset rising prices.

At the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers convention this summer the membership authorized the union's officers to demand a 30-cent increase. Whitney took no stand at the time but his recommendation made in Chicago yesterday lined up the two largest operating brotherhoods as favoring a 30-cent increase, a stand which observers believed would be followed by the three smaller unions—the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Order of Railway Conductors and the Switchman's Union of North America.

In addition to a wage increase demand the unions have asked the nation's carriers for changes in 44 working rules. Union officials said the working rule change demand would not be set aside in favor of the pay proposal.

One million members of the 17 non-operating railroad unions were recently awarded a 15½ cents hourly wage hike by an arbitration board after they had asked for a 20-cent hourly pay boost.

SUICIDES AT MANSFIELD

By The Associated Press

MANSFIELD, O., Sept. 18—Coroner D. C. Lavender today returned a suicide verdict in the shooting death of Mrs. Katherine Rowe, 42. He said she apparently had been despondent since the death of her husband Robert Rowe, six months ago.

U. S. Has Fewer Than 80,000 Combat Troops, General Says

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 18—Lt. Gen. J. Lawton Collins, the Army's deputy chief of staff, said today the United States has less than 80,000 combat troops in this country from which to organize a striking force if war came suddenly.

Exclusive of supporting services, Collins said, this is the entire force on hand "out of which to build any kind of a mobile ground army, any combat force to serve as the American contribution to any United Nations security force or as a mobile reserve to meet a national emergency."

He said the Army is currently 80,000 short of its authorized strength of 1,070,000, which includes about 400,000 men and officers of the Air Force, now an independent organization.

Analyzing the country's military position for war in a speech prepared for a meeting of the National Guard association, Collins said.

"In measuring the effectiveness of our counterattack, we must accept that the enemy will be expecting us. Stripped of the advantage of surprise, initially we are less likely than he to get the bulk of our planes and missiles to their destinations.

Enemy Has Jump

"In a war in which the supply of atomic explosives on both sides may be limited, this might prove a substantial factor. The enemy would have the jump under circumstances that might give him a long start toward victory."

Collins urged, as vitally necessary to national defense, the building up of the National Guard so it could furnish about 700,000 of the 1,750,000-man force the Army wants prepared for action on any possible emergency.

In an address last night, Maj. Gen. Kenneth F. Cramer, chief of the National Guard bureau, predicted that combat divisions and tactical air divisions would receive top priority in an expanded National Guard. Cramer said these divisions would total 4,500 ground and 355 air units.

Aggregate strength in officers, warrant officers and enlisted men will reach 250,000 in ground forces and 21,000 in air units by next July, the general said.

In the 1949 fiscal year, he added, there will be some 5,000 ground units and 514 air organizations, totaling 300,000 and 41,000 personnel, respectively.

Combat Gets Top Priority

The conventional combat division and the tactical air unit will get top priority, Cramer continued, adding that infantry regimental combat teams will be second and anti-aircraft artillery and aircraft warning units, third. Fourth place will be given non-divisional combat units slated as reinforcement sources, followed by units required for training and other purposes.

The war department foresees a total of 25 infantry divisions in the guards ground forces in addition to two full armored divisions, General Cramer said.

He said governors accepted increased allotment of national guard personnel pending passage of a universal military training measure by congress.

"The present state of national defense does not permit any holding back until these measures are adopted. States should prepare plans now for absorbing UMT graduates who have the option of completing their training with the guard," Cramer continued.

GRAIN MARKET FACES CURBS

Two Branches of Government Rumble Threats of Action Against Speculators.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18—Bad news for grain speculators shaped up in two branches of the government today amid mounting concern over food and other prices.

On Capitol Hill, Chairman Hope (R-Kan) of the house agriculture committee declared unless the nation's commodity exchanges themselves apply the brakes to the kind of trading blamed for skyrocketing food prices, then congress "should and must" impose its own restraints.

President Truman's cabinet committee on food appears headed for a decision to clamp a sharply lower ceiling on grain exports for the months immediately ahead.

In still another development bearing on the ever-widening price picture, a group of top-flight business leaders heard Senator Flanders (R-Vt) assert that if the soft coal wage "appeasement" course is followed by industry generally, the government will be "forced to step in" with controls over wages, prices and profits alike

Hope's call for a slow-down in grain speculation topped a four point program he outlined in a statement pointing to the "possibility of ruinous inflation at home and want, starvation and political chaos abroad."

Urges 4 Safeguards

As safeguards against that "possibility," the Kansan urged:

►Voluntary rationing of scarce and high priced foods, "including the substitution of cheaper and more plentiful foods where possible."

►Holding the line on wages as well as price, "including restraint by labor leaders in demanding general wage increases."

►Expanded production in every line "so as to absorb some of the purchasing power which is now forcing up food prices."

►"Needed steps to restrain speculation in the commodity markets. If the exchanges are unwilling or unable to do this, it

CANVASS MERCHANTS FOR STRIKE HELP

McMillen Workers Begin Campaign for Donations.

McMillen Feed company employes began a canvass of Marion merchants today seeking donations to support their strike which four weeks ago forced suspension of operations at one of the largest soybean processing plants in this area.

Conducting the canvass are Glenn Jeffries, and John Chapman, members of the McMillen union welfare committee.

Involved in the strike are between 85 and 90 production workers at the McMillen plant. Their union is affiliated with the UAW-CIO under Local 750 which serves as the bargaining agent for employes at the Universal Cooler, Isaly Dairy and McMillen plants.

Joseph Stafford, president of the McMillen unit of the union stated that the UAW has voted $150 a week to the support of the McMillen strike, and that arrangements for food for striking employes had been made with a food market here.

Stafford also revealed that "a large majority" of the striking workers had obtained other employment since the strike was called.

Stafford said that "if we are still out when the soybean harvest commences, picketing will be resumed." He estimated that McMillen handles "about two-thirds of the county's soybean crop."

MOVE COMES AS HURRICANE REVERSES SELF

Pensacola Braces as Storm Turns Back for 2nd Sweep Over Mainland.

By The Associated Press

PENSACOLA, Fla., Sept. 18—Frightened residents boarded up homes and business buildings along Florida's vulnerable coast before an advancing hurricane, and Gov. Millard Caldwell's office announced that President Truman had declared a state of emergency in Florida.

The announcement came a few hours after the weather bureau disclosed that the treacherous tropical storm had curved sharply after inflicting multi-million dollar damage upon southern Florida, and was headed back toward the mainland from the Gulf of Mexico.

Yesterday, the unpredictable, uncontrollable monster ripped a path of destruction across Florida's most famous playground and farming section. It roared inland with 120-mile winds between Miami and Palm Beach, and emerged into the Gulf near Fort Myers with scarcely-diminished velocity.

60 Miles Off Tampa

Weather advisories placed the storm roughly 60 miles off the mouth of Tampa bay at 11:30 a. m. and forecasts indicated it would slam into the low-lying western Florida about midnight, between Pensacola and Apalachicola. Hurricane flags flew from Pensacola to St. Marks, and winds up to 100-mph were anticipated.

Civilians in the danger area were being moved to reinforced buildings and beach residents fled to town. Seven Cuban fishing boats landed at Alligator point as their crews sought shelter. Tallahassee residents with beach homes rushed from the capital to batten down their cottages.

Truman's emergency proclamation enables the federal works administration to distribute relief supplies in all hurricane areas.

Down To Gale

Hurricane winds which mauled the lower west coast of Florida last night diminished to gale strength today, but continued to hamper transportation and communication.

In Atlanta, the federal reserve bank announced that credits would be extended to finance replacement of storm-damaged property and would be exempt from usual consumer-credit controls.

At Montgomery, Ala., Governor James Folsom offered all aid to Florida, and ordered 12 Alabama highway patrolmen into the threatened storm area for disaster duty. The Red Cross and other agencies braced for the newest blow.

Yesterday's storm left behind it at least two dead, thousands of distressed and hungry refugees and great, yet unmeasured property damage.

No less than 17 persons were stranded or missing, 11 in two boats off the Gulf coast and six on an east coast cape jutting into the ocean.

Five thousand were clustered in improvised shelters at the inland city of Sebring, appealing urgently for food. They were driven there yesterday by the storm menace that hung heavily over their homes around Lake Okeechobee.

The mightiest hurricane to strike the South Florida peninsula in a decade, the storm scattered havoc and hardship from shore to shore. Still with its uncounted millions of dollars of damage, it apparently spared the rich and populous lower peninsula the wholesale devastation that had been feared.

Raked by Winds

Millionaire resort cities and rich citrus groves and vegetable farms alike were raked by tremendous winds in their 150-mile course from east to west coast. Trees, plants, less secure buildings and other property were battered by blasts up to 120 miles an hour.

The week-old, Caribbean-bred winds bore down from the Atlantic on the Florida "gold coast" between Palm Beach and Miami at noon yesterday. With a final slap of fury at the west coast city of Fort Myers where winds up to 100 miles an hour raged for hours, the hurricane screeched into the Gulf just before midnight.

The south Florida damage ran into the millions. Early east coast Del Ray and Miami Beach estimates alone totaled $3,000,000.

Terrific losses were suffered by the citrus growers with their $100,000,000 crop and the vegetable farmers of the fertile Okeechobee mucklands. Citrus groves heavily loaded with fruit were reported smashed down in sickening destruction.

Scantily-worded reports from Okeechobee described conditions there as "deplorable," although no casualties were reported. At least

G.O.P. Chiefs Coming Saturday For Congressman's Barbecue

Final plans are being completed today for the Eighth Ohio Congressional District G. O. P. rally to be held Saturday afternoon in Garfield park and marked by an old fashioned pit barbecue with Congressman Frederick C. Smith as host.

Gov. Thomas J. Herbert, who will fly to Marion from Paulding, heads the list of prominent guests. The governor will arrive about 4 p. m. and is expected to make a brief address, before returning for an evening engagement at Cincinnati.

Among the list of prominent officials planning to attend the event are Lt. Gov. Paul Herbert, State Treasurer Don Ebright, Attorney General Hugh Jenkins, Secretary of State Edward J. Hummel, State Senator David Liggett, Judge Guy D. Finley of Elyria and Appelate Judge Walter Jackson of Lima.

Co-hosts with Congressman Smith are Marion Hinklin, Mrs. W. N. Harder and Calvin Oborn heads of the Marion county Republican organizations.

The committee is preparing to serve more than 3,000 when the pit is opened at 5:30 p. m. The event is expected to get underway about 3 with a brief speaking program including the governor's talk, welcome by Congressman Smith and introduction of guests.

The Ohio Republican Glee Club from Columbus will be present for the program.

CHARTER GIVEN TO TRIBE OF RED MEN

Presentation Made at Meeting of Marion Lodge.

At a meeting of Chippewa Tribe No. 30, Improved Order of Red Men, Tuesday night in the Democratic hall, a charter, which was granted at the Great Council meeting Aug. 8-9 in Columbus was presented to the tribe by Wilbur Curtis of Troy, great sachem. He was assisted in the presentation by Fred Neuhaus of Toledo, great chief of records, and M. A. Hoffman of Hilliards, great junior sagamore.

One candidate was given the obligation, and the charter was draped for Charles Buckingham, who died recently. He was the junior sagamore of the tribe.

Mr. Neuhaus explained the eighth annual get-together of the tribes of Ohio to be held Sept. 20-21 at Far Hollow, and plans were discussed for an initiation to be held Sunday, Sept. 28, in the Democratic hall, with the degree team from Toledo in charge of the All-American degree.

P.-T.A. Executive Board In Session at Y.M.C.A.

A meeting of the executive board of the P.-T. A. City Council was held Tuesday night in the reading room of the Y. M. C. A., at which time a delegate and alternate were elected to attend the state P.-T. A. convention to be held Oct. 27-29 in Cincinnati. Mrs. Arthur Noble, president of the council, was named delegate, and Mrs. Ralph Carhart, alternate.

The annual tag day was announced for Friday and Saturday, Sept. 26-27, and Mrs. Pearl McDonald is tag day chairman. The national P.-T. A. membership week was also announced to get underway the week of Sept. 21.

A report was made by the health chairman that 421 children were checked at the preschool clinic held last spring throughout the city. Mrs. LeRoy Schneider, music chairman for the council, also reported that the East Side Mothersingers will sing at the state convention in Cincinnati. Mrs. Warren Wise is director of the group.

The first regular meeting of the council will be held Oct. 9.

PLAN HAMBURGER FRY

At a recent meeting of the Past President's club of Protected Home Circle No. 184 with Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Kraus on Hane avenue, plans were made for a hamburger fry to be held Sunday evening at Newman's Roadside Park. The evening was spent socially with games and cards, and lunch was served by the hostess. Guests were Mrs. Madie Benson of Logansport, Ind., and Mrs. Pearl Swartz of Marion. The next meeting will be a potluck supper Oct. 8 with Mr. and Mrs. Starly Fout of New Bloomington.

Marshall Speaks Out

SECRETARY MARSHALL'S UN assembly speech bore out advance notice that the United States would speak out against the tactics which have come close to destroying the security council. It has set the tone for the proceedings. Plain talk instead of diplomatic evasions will clear the air and perhaps determine UN's future.

In summing up the major problems facing UN it is significant that Mr. Marshall considered the Greek situation first. He proposes a resolution fixing responsibility for the strife in northern Greece and asks a commission to carry out the assembly's proposals for halting it.

Aside from the Palestine problem, virtually every important problem coming before the assembly is one that the security council has kicked around. If the assembly does no better, the UN will be no better than what some disillusioned Americans are calling it—a whited sepulcher.

To save the UN, the American delegation offers to forego the veto except on issues involving forceful action against aggressors. This proposal will find enthusiastic support among the small nations, even those within the Russian orbit. This proposal increases American prestige, already high, but will it be accepted by Russia?

A power which has relied so heavily on the veto isn't likely to surrender it.

Speaking of Speed-up

THE communist press in answering industry's call for increased production with charges of "speed-up!" a handy word of leftists since the days when the wobblies introduced it. It is making much of the fact that 33 union leaders signed a National Planning Association statement that additional wage raises are dependent on increased production. Among the unionists are several whom the Communists particularly dislike, so their press takes the trouble to identify them by name.

Time-saving and production-increasing methods have been one of the secrets of the American system's success. There is a difference between merciless whip-cracking and the elimination of featherbedding and make-work procedure. Union contracts, shop stewards and grievance committees aren't likely to allow the introduction of production methods which justify the use of "speed-up" in its unfavorable connotations.

And speaking of speed-up, the Communists' Russian comrades have great affection for those heroes of the Soviet Union known as Stakhanovites—doughty workers who dig more coal, turn more furrows or drive more rivets than their fellow workers. They receive holidays on the Black Sea and perhaps are brought face to face for a moment with Uncle Joe himself.

In Russia, according to the Communists, an outstandingly diligent worker deserves the name of Stakhanovite; in America he's a dirty capitalist stooge probably working in cahoots with a time study expert.

Forewarned and Forearmed

IT'S a vital task confronting the presidential commission which this week begins an inquiry designed to find security for the United States in an atomic age.

Endowed with investigating powers seldom equaled, the board will follow up the air-coordinating committee's recommendation "that the United States should maintain military power sufficient in size and efficiency to make it unprofitable for another country to embark on a campaign of aggression against this country." The committee said this meant sufficient air power to attack and cripple any aggression at its source.

The commission's principal task will be to determine how to achieve that strength and to estimate its probable cost. The outcome of its findings is not likely to be made public, except in the most general terms, but it will play an important part in the shaping of our military policy.

If there are wars in the future, there won't be a time lag between the first overt act and the start of full-scale operations. The commission's job is to recommend how we can best be ready for any eventuality.

America Grows Skeptical

By RAYMOND MOLEY

High Costs Bring Change of Opinion About Europe.

PUBLIC opinion in this country has been going through some violent changes in the past week. Those whose business it is to sense and record economic and political weather have seen their barometer in a high state of activity. Some of this might have been anticipated, because the facts in Europe and America were obviously running counter to prevailing official and unofficial propaganda. There is, whether we wish it or not, a sudden pause for reflection before large commitments are made. The United States, in short, is taking a second look at its own capacities and problems.

A dozen or more factors are involved in this wearing of public opinion. The biggest is the mounting cost of living in this country. The last jumps in prices are awakening people to a sense of crisis. Efforts by politicians to use the H.C.L. as a means of attacking Republicans are not succeeding. That is not because such an argument might not be effective in a political year. It is, rather, because people generally are not interested in political appeals to be made next year about something that happened last year.

Today's Worries

People are worried about today's grocery bill, not political speculation or propaganda. Their common sense tells them there is something called supply and demand. They know that, if meat and butter and wheat are short, exports are going to make them still shorter. They are willing to do with less to help Europe, but they are not sure that Europe's claims are sound and that Europe is helping itself.

England has contributed a lot in the past two weeks to this shift in American opinion. Foreign Minister Bevin contributed two of the prize boners of the year in his remarks about American gold and a restoration of lend-lease. The British miners who went on strike have contributed their morsel of food for American thought. France suggested a loan of $500,000,000 and then confessed an error. It meant half that, it said. Careless handling of claims makes no confidence over here. The Paris conference is slow in reporting, and Washington seems to be in confusion about what can or should be done.

Warnings to Europe

John J. McCloy of the International Bank is broadcasting warnings that Europe must not expect too much from us.

Our food supply is setting limits to what can be done. This column on recent occasions has pointed out that the amount of credits that Europe is expected to ask is far beyond the goods that can actually be exported, despite current high prices. And it is clear in Washington that our government is going to take a stand against exporting coal at $20 or $25 a ton to countries which can be supplied from British and German mines, where there is plenty of manpower for larger production.

People in Washington still believe a special session will be called. But it is reported that President Truman is doubtful. He, too, must be hearing from home.

Just a Minute

Is Larceny To Be Legalized?

A St. Louis judge has ruled that a man's wife "has a legal as well as a moral right to go through his pockets while he sleeps."

Never send to ask for whom the bell tolls . .

It's bad enough for women to wear men's pants without having legal authority to rifle them.

Where is the Civil Liberties Union? Plainly thus violated is man's traditional freedom from illegal search and seizure.

If a man's home is his castle and not subject to entry without a warrant, consider how much more sacred and personal are his pants.

Yes sir, I'll bet not one man in a hundred realized, when he said the fateful words, "with all my worldly goods I thee endow," that he was thereby conveying rummaging privileges.

Obviously, an appeal to the highest court is in order. And meanwhile, having no legal protection, the embattled male can only resort to the old standbys. . . mousetraps and fish-hooks.

Immediate Problem in Europe

By WALTER LIPPMANN

I AM contending that the American diplomatic effort should be concentrated on the problem created by the armistice—which is on how the continent of Europe can be evacuated by the three non-European armies which are now inside Europe.

This is the problem which will have to be solved if the independence of the European nations is to be restored. Without that there is no possibility of a tolerable peace.

But if these armies withdraw, there will be a very different balance of power in the world than there is today, and one which cannot easily be upset. For nations of Europe, separately and in groups, perhaps even in unity, will then, and then only cease to be the stakes and the pawns of the Russian-American conflict.

The material cause and reason of the conflict will have been dealt with.

The terms of the problem were defined at Yalta in the winter of 1945. There, with a victory over Germany in sight, Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin made a military settlement which fixed the boundaries where the converging armies were to meet, and were to wait while the governments negotiated the terms of peace which would provide for the withdrawal of the armies.

The crucial issue in the world today is whether the Yalta military boundary, which was intended to be provisional for the period of the armistice, is to become the political boundary of two hostile coalitions.

The Yalta line registered an agreed estimate by Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin as to what would be the actual military situation at the close of hostilities. They knew that the Red Army would be in Warsaw, Bucharest, Budapest, Belgrade and Sofia. So Churchill and Roosevelt recognized that the military boudary for the armistice would place eastern Europe within the Soviet sphere.

The British, on the other hand, were in Athens; the British-Americans were in Italy; therefore, Stalin recognized that Italy and Greece would be within the British and American sphere.

The Americans, it was evident, were paramount in the Pacific and would play the leading part in the defeat of Japan, so the United States was recognized as the paramount power in Japan.

Yalta Line Set

There was some doubt as to where the Red Army and the western armies would meet in Germany and Austria. The Yalta line was, therefore, the result of a combined military estimate of where they would probably find themselves when the German resistance had finally been crushed.

Actually the Americans advanced beyond that line. But at Yalta it was by no means certain that they would reach that line, and there is excellent authority for saying that Mr. Churchill felt he had made as good a bargain as British-American military prospects warranted.

The Yalta line in the Far East was settled on the same basis—that is to say, on an agreed estimate of the balance of power at the close of hostilities.

There has been, I believe, a misunderstanding about this in the United States. The concessions made to Stalin by Roosevelt and Churchill have been represented as being the price they paid for Soviet intervention in the Japanese war. The concessions, it is then said, were unnecessary, for Japan was already defeated or would soon have been.

But the Russians were in a position to occupy the territory they asked for and more besides, whether or not they entered the war. Nothing was in fact conceded to Stalin that Roosevelt and Churchill could, if they had been put to the test, have been able to withhold.

The Yalta military boundary was the datum line from which the diplomatic settlement of the war had necessarily to begin. It was, I believe, at this juncture that American diplomacy became confused, lost sight of the primary and essential objective, and became entangled in all manner of secondary issues and disputes in the Russian borderlands.

Debt To Patriots

The British and the Americans, of course, could not accept the permanent division of the European continent along the Yalta line. They could not accept a settlement in which Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria would lose all independence and become incorporated as Soviet republics in the U.S.S.R. They had a debt of honor to the countless patriots in those lands.

They realized that if the frontiers of the Soviet system were extended as far west as the middle of Germany and Austria, then not only Germany and Austria but all western Europe might fall within the Russian sphere of influence and be dominated by the Soviet Union.

Thus for the best of reasons and with the best of motives they came to the conclusion that they must wage a diplomatic campaign to prevent Russia from expanding her sphere, to prevent her from consolidating it, and to compel her to contract it. But they failed to see clearly that until the Red Army evacuated eastern Europe and withdrew to the frontiers of the Soviet Union none of these objectives could be achieved.

Had they seen clearly the significance of the military situation they would not have committed the United States to anything in eastern Europe while the Soviet government had the power to enforce it. They would have taken and noted the pledges and promises to respect the independence and the freedom of the nations of eastern Europe which Stalin gave them at Yalta. But they would not have committed the United States to a guaranty that Stalin would keep his pledges while his army was occupying eastern Europe.

For, since the United States could not make good this guaranty, the onus of the violation of the pledges was divided between the Russians, who broke them, and the Americans, who had promised to enforce them and did not.

Policy of Realities

It would have been far better to base our policy on the realities of the balance of power; to let Stalin, who made the promises which he alone could fulfill, take the whole responsibility for breaking them; to concentrate our effort on treaties of peace which would end the occupation of Europe.

For if, and only if, we can bring about the withdrawal of the Red Army from the Yalta line to the new frontier of the Soviet Union—and simultaneously, of course, the withdrawal of the British and American armies from continental Europe—can a balance of power be established which can then be maintained.

After the withdrawal, an attempt to return would be an invasion—an open, unmistakable act of military aggression. Against such an aggression, the power of the United States to strike the vital centers of Russia by air and by amphibious assault would stand as the opposing and deterrent force.

And until treaties are agreed to which bring about the withdrawal of the Red Army, the power of the United States to strike these vital centers should be built up for the express purpose of giving weight to our policy of ending the military occupation of Europe.

All the other pressures of the Soviet Union are, I contend, secondary and subsidiary to the fact that its armed forces are in the heart of Europe. It is to the Red Army in Europe, therefore, and not to ideologies, elections, forms of government to socialism, to communism, to free enterprise, that a correctly conceived and soundly planned policy should be directed.

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Saturday, Sept. 18, 1937.

Upwards of 100,000 veterans converged upon New York City for the American Legion convention. Making the trip in the 40 et 8 locomotive and box car were Police Chief William E. Marks, Robert Martin, L. H. Larsen, William Rizor, Ed Solomon and Ed Harrold. The train, which had won state honors was entered in the national competition.

Miss Twila M. Drumm and Sherman W. Haldeman were married in Calvary Evangelical chuch by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Heinmger.

Mrs. Clara Whitenack, 59, died of a heart ailment at her home on Mt. Vernon avenue.

George Conroy, Harry Winters and William Howison were listed in the 1937 varsity football roster of Ohio Northern university.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Woodard of East Church street.

The Marion county fair closed with a capacity crowd in the grandstand and a turnout of 5,000 for the day. The week's total attendance was approximately 26,500.

Tom Mix and his circus gave afternoon and night performances at the Drake lot on East Fairground street.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Sunday, Sept. 18, 1927.

The Brinker family held its annual reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Brinker in Green Camp. The day also marked the eighty-sixth birthday anniversary of Mr. Brinker.

Miss Hazel Riley of Delaware avenue and Henry J. Bertrand of Indianapolis, were united in marriage by Rev. E. Radebaugh at the Calvary Evangelical parsonage on East Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burgin and daughter Emily of Windsor street and Harold Thomas of Cherry street returned from Montreal, Canada, where they attended the convention of the American Railway Signal association.

The Marion Eagles baseball team was defeated by the Mansfield Yunckers at Lincoln park 7-5. Good pitched for Marion.

ANOTHER PROSPECTOR

Sen. Taft Knows the Answers

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

SENATOR ROBERT A. TAFT has embarked on a tour of the United States to test his unpopularity. He is the second Republican openly and frankly to be a candidate for the nomination. The other is former Governor Harold Stassen of Wisconsin, who has spent at least four years organizing for a super-blitz in imitation of Wendell Willkie. Governor Dewey of New York is not yet an avowed candidate although no one doubts his intentions. General Eisenhower is an embarrassed candidate, for as chief of staff he is subordinate to President Truman and as an Army officer, he can have no politics. When he becomes president of Columbia university, he will be strictly on his own, without uniform, brass, or inhibitions.

President Truman has, with political acumen, accepted Senator Taft as his opponent and has taken the unusual step of attacking him personally from the White House. In each debate between them, Taft did a masterly job on Truman, although the President, because of his office, got the headlines. It has been difficult to appraise this situation, for it could be assumed that Truman wanted to kill Taft off as a prospective candidate or that he accepted Taft's nomination as inevitable and went on from there.

Position Not Unique

Taft's position of leadership is not unique. Webster, Clay, Calhoun, Henry Cabot Lodge, Borah and many other senators led their party and the country. Most such leaders were never nominated for the presidency because their very competence and leadership created too vehement an opposition to themselves both personally and politically.

Taft has courted opposition. He assumed the chairmanship of the labor committee of the senate, when he might have dodged it, and he produced the Taft-Hartley bill, which will be the principal issue in the campaign. He opposes universal military service, which is favored by those who must support him if he is to be elected. He fought the appointment of David Lilienthal to the atomic energy commission because he regarded Lilienthal as unsuitable; he might have passed that buck to Senator Hickenlooper, who was chairman of the committee in charge of this matter and who did an inadquate job. He has supported a housing bill, a health bill and a federal aid to education bill which many conservative Republicans and Democrats oppose.

His career in the senate, as leader, has therefore been unusual in that he pursued a philosophy of action which ignored popularity or unpopularity. I doubt whether he has ever looked at a Gallup or Roper or any other poll—and if perchance he has looked at them, he ignored their prognostications, as any public official of honor and dignity will.

Taft's Position

For ours is a representative government in which the chosen officials of the people are expected to serve their terms in accordance with their consciences and the Constitution of the United States. The poll-reading official buries his conscience beneath a mound of percentages and subordinates the Constitution to the whims and fashions of momentary public opinion. Taft would say that while he would like to be President of the United States, he would not stultify his honor, dignity and faith to gain it.

It is precisely in this mood that he goes before the country now to speak his mind and to explain his philosophy. No orator, he will deliver his speeches without the advantage of voice culture or the apt phrases of hired ghosters. He will hurl statistical data at anyone who asks a question. He will argue at the drop of a phrase. I once saw him stand before an audience of publishers, editors, writers and such folks, answering questions propounded by Nat Howard of the Cleveland News and many sent up from the floor—extemporaneously, without knowledge in advance as to what the questions would be. It was an amazing exhibition of information, wisdom and sureness of position.

Taft may come out of this the Republican candidate or without a chance of nomination. Come what may, he will remaina leader of this nation, for he has a philosophy of action for the American people that runs true to the traditional American belief in the freedom of the individual man.

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Letters for Special Delivery

GENERAL IKE EISENHOWER
U.S.A. and Columbia University:

Dear Ike:

I just read about you looking for a place to live near New York and I got just the idea. I hope you have not established no bridgework anywhere else in the rental area before you read this I been considering everything. What do you a General like you want first in a home? Peace and a good home is the only place you got a chance to find it, even with UN helping.

* * *

Second you want to be far enough outside the city of New York that nobody can reach you from any big banquet that needs a persona to and grab you. Third, general, you could not afford to live in New York proper on account you would have to use the subways at times and how would it look to see you, a scrapper who whammed through super obstacles from Casa to Berlin without no trouble to speak of, throw for a loss on a subway rush by a flock of stenographers?

* * *

Fourth, you do not want no cramped Manhattan apartment where the elevators and doormen wear more imposing uniforms than the Army and Navy and where despite your rank and authority and force you would not even be able to make the ashman or garbage collectors be little quiet, and also where you would lose your first 100% losing battle—the one to get the landlord to repaint a door.

* * *

Now, General, you have got to have a house with a good view, so you can see Taft, Stassen and Dewey 1,000 miles on a clear day and not lose sight of MacArthur even when it's cloudy. Also you got to have cross ventilation as the cooking done even in houses on the outskirts of New York smells awful and if it gets into your rooms, it has to be allowed to pass through or else you will think somebody has started bacterial warfare for keeps.

* * *

You say you want a little land as you are a farm boy at heart. All I know about that is that you made Hitler eat his own spinach and disproved the Totalitarian Honeydew Melon with an inferior tomato.

* * *

I got just the garden for you. I know a hard slambang fighter like you is used to tough jobs and would not like no soft gardening so I got one with a lot of rocks that take plenty of fighting and you even got to get through some hedgerows and roadblocks to reach it.

* * *

To make you feel at home I can fix it up to include a few landmines near where you would plant the peas and lettuce. The owner will also toss in some rakes, hoes, trowels and leave just enough Japanese beetles to keep you in full state of appreciation of what war really is like.

* * *

This place has a cyclone celler which can be used to get away from newspapermen trying to get you to discuss the presidency of the U.S. You will need this this winter and next spring, Ike.

* * *

So if it sounds good contact me and I will make with all the details, location, rent, etc. Mrs. Eisenhower will love it, too, as she would not want to see you in any city apartment where you would be trapped by a hall full of perambulators, scooters, pants pressers and laundry collectors and never be able to make the objective.

Yours truly
OSCAR PURKEY

* * *

P.S. It is not too near the Columbia football team.

Pea-Shuckers

By TRUMAN TWILL

THIS is about typewriters, a subject of which we know nothing. After more than 25 years of living with one in our lap, we have no idea how a typewriter works or what the little knobs and levers are for.

What we want to say is that we have had three typewriters, the one they gave us when we asked for work and got it, the one they gave us when they bought a batch of new ones, and the one the kids play with at home on rainy days, during sick siege and whenever boredom sets in.

The one at home was going to be drenched with midnight oil and was—once. (The rejection slip was tactfully worded.) The two others have been battered by adversity, especially the first one, which is still grinding and chattering away in more capable hands, bless it. It never squealed to the head man that the young Brisbane next added to the staff didn't know any more about running a typewriter than a pig knows about Christmas.

It was to be 10 years before the powers that be, in their infinite and wholly accidental wisdom, gave the boy journalist a new mill. (Newspaper people are supposed to call typewriters "mills" once in every piece written about them, so that's taken care of.) Diligence finally was rewarded, we thought. We found out afterward that the combination of bad typing and a worn-out typewriter had been too much for a glassy-eyed cynic on the copy desk who said it would be a new typewriter for Punchy, or else.

It worked. The new typewriter was such a challenge that nine years later we could write "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party" without looking at the keys more than twice. It was the touch system, with mittens. That new typewriter opened new horizons, but it is not, unfortunately, new any more. Its chain drive and little one-cylinder engine make it look more like a museum piece than a word-vending machine.

New typewriters have chromium trim, trick levers and knobs arranged so as not to knock out the teeth of a dozing operator and are as full of plastic as a drug store is full of vitamins. The cast-iron hoot-nannies and pressed-steel thumgumbobs have disappeared, in favor of weight-saving metals and little dials and gages. Some even have electric motors to do the work. So what happens?

Here we sit, day after day, with the same old pea-shucker that rattled out stuff about the era of prosperity that was going to last forever; the depression that was going to last forever; the war that was going to last forever; and whatever it is now that won't last forever either. The only thing that's going to last forever is the typewriter. We want a new one with chromium trim, an electric motor, interchangeable type faces, stuff that lights up and a cute little rascal to take dictation. All right, boss, we'll be reasonable. Omit the little rascal.

Social Affairs

THE first meeting of the club reason for the Marion Association of University Women was held Tuesday night at the Marion Country club with Miss Ruth Turner presiding. Plans for the year were outlined by committee chairman, and a program included vocal numbers by Jean and Jane Uncapher accompanied by Mrs. Beaver Bricker, and piano solo by Mrs. Bricker. The room and tables were decorated with fall flowers. Refreshments were served by the social committee including Mrs. E. G. Siefert, Mrs. Ralph Carhart, Mrs. J. H. Harmon, Mrs. E. Paul Huffman and Mrs. Charles Oborn.

SIX tables were filled for cards when the Elks Women's club met last evening at the Elks' clubrooms. Awards were won by Mrs. Ed Ford, auction, Mrs. Charles Faurot, contract and Mrs. Geneva Flocken, euchre. Mrs. Marie Phelps received a special award. Mrs. Francis Robbins, a member of the club, was reported ill in the City hospital. Plans were made for a luncheon meeting Oct. 1 at Hotel Harding.

The Searchlight Literary club of Prospect opened its fall and winter season Monday evening when they met at the home of Mrs. Hobart Lepart, president. Mrs. Harold Click, Mrs. Donald Hickman and Mrs. Robert Emery, fellow officers, assisted with the entertainment.

Mrs. W. N. Harder of Marion instructed the club in "A Parliamentary Tangle" by using a novel type of delivery and having each member take a part.

The meeting opened with devotions by Mrs. Archie Myers, who chose the topic "Our Work." Plans were made for a dinner meeting to be held in January for members and their husbands. Dorothy Louise Burbaugh gave a report of the state convention.

Program included two vocal selections, "Will You Remember" and "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes" by Miss Phyllis Knickle of Prospect. Her mother, Mrs. Wilfred Knickle accompanied her at the piano. Refreshments were served. The next meeting on Oct. 20 will be with Mrs. Donald Ward.

Guests were Mrs. Harder, Miss Phyllis Knickle, Mrs. Robert Sechrist and Mrs. Wilfred Knickle.

Members of Beta Gamma chapter, Lambda Chi Omega national sorority, held a corn and wiener roast Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Damon Carey west of Green Camp, with 14 persons present. Outdoor games provided entertainment and prizes were won by Mrs. Hubert Goerlich and Mrs. Don Jerew. Later in the evening cards were played with high honors going to Miss Frances Huffman. The guessing box award went to Mrs. Henry Schuler Jr., and Mrs. Robert Walsh won a special award. The next meeting will be Tuesday evening, Sept. 23, at Hotel Harding with Mrs. Goerlich as hostess.

Mrs. Kenneth Landon was complimented with a personal shower Monday evening when Mrs. Kenneth Kilbury and Mrs. Ray Lill entertained at the latter's home north of Marion. The colors, pink and blue, were carried out in the decorations. Bridge was played with high honors going to Mrs. Lafe Phelps, and Miss Alice Quaintance won the award in cootie. Guests besides those already named were Mrs. H. C. Stury of Nevada, Mrs. Roy Abel, Mrs. Charles Forrey, Mrs. Mary C. Goss, Mrs. Damon Guthery, Mrs. A. J. Matson, Mrs. Clifford E. Miller, Mrs. James Rairdon, Mrs.

Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Keller of 761 Woodrow avenue are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Betty Jean, and Leroy Lower, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lower of 966 East Church street. The double ring ceremony was read at Jeffersonville, Ind., Monday, Sept. 8, at 7:30 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Scott Funk of Louisville, Ky., aunt and uncle of the bride, were the attendants. The bride is employed at the White-Haines Optical Co. and her husband is an employe of the Pollak Steel Co. Following a short wedding trip through southern Ohio and Kentucky, they are at home for the present with the parents of the bridegroom.

When Miss Norma Jean McClung became the bride of George E. McGuire Sunday afternoon in a closed church ceremony in Epworth Methodist church, Dr. V. E. Busler, pastor, officiated, and Miss Maye Evangeline Lawrence, church organist, played the wedding music. The double ring service was read at 4:30 o'clock. Baskets of white gladioli formed the decoration.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Frank Naylor of 993 North State street, and her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. McGuire of 616 Henry street. She was given in marriage by a brother, Paul McClung, and her maid of honor was Miss Margie Wilson, both of Marion. Glenn Slyker of Huron, O., served as best man, and ushers were Robert Forsythe and Forest Disbennett, both of Marion.

Music by Miss Lawrence included "Cantilena Nuptiale," Dubois; "Sweetest Story Ever Told," Stults; "Duetto," Mendelssohn; Romance," Rubinstein; "Liebestraum," Liszt; processional, "Bridal Chorus," from "Lohengrin," Wagner; during the ceremony, "To the Evening Star," Wagner, and when the couple received friends at the altar, "O Perfect Love," Burleigh and "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life," Herbert.

For her wedding, the bride chose a street length dress in soldie blue shade with which she wore black accessories. She carried a white Bible. Her corsage was of red roses, centered with a gardenia, and her only jewelry was a strand of pearls. Miss Wilson wore a street length dress of rose color with which she combined black accessories. Mother of the bride was costumed in a black dress with white trimming, and black accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of light blue, and black accessories. Both had corsage of gardenias.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Marion Sandwich shop with about 100 guests attending. The couple left on a wedding trip of a week, and for going away Mrs. McGuire chose a gray suit with which she wore black accessories and her wedding corsage. At rehearsal for the ceremony Friday night, she presented Miss Wilson with a gold pin, and Mr. McGuire gave the best man a billfold, and to the ushers he gave gold keychain rings.

Out of town guests were Miss Maxine Ellington of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stoneburner and Mrs. Bessie McClung, all of Caledonia, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Slyker of Huron, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pine and Mrs. Evelyn McClung and daughter, Betty, all of Edison.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McGuire are graduates of Harding High school with the classes of 1942 and 1937, respectively. She is employed as cashier at the Big Bear store, and he is an employe of the Quaker Oats Co. He served overseas with the army about three years. They plan to make their home at an East Center street address.

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Lela Johnston, daughter of Mrs. Ivy Johnston of 550 South Prospect street and the late Delphos Johnston, and William Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins of Jefferson street. The ceremony was read last Friday in Emanuel Lutheran church by Rev. M. E. Hollensen in the presence of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Peterson of Lincoln avenue were the couple's attendants.

For her wedding, Miss Johnston chose a blue dress, with which she combined black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. Mrs. Peterson was costumed in a black and white dress with which she wore black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bride attended Harding High school and is employed as a window decorator at the Montgomery Ward store. Her husband was graduated from Harding High school in 1943 and served two and a half years in the navy. He is an employe at the Prospect Monitor office at Prospect. They will make their home at 277 Orchard street, Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Titus of Richwood are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Marilyn, to Joseph Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lewis of Richwood.

The single ring ceremony was read at 10:30 a. m. Sept. 8 in Russell, Ky. The couple left immediately for a motor trip through the southern states and upon their return will reside for the present with the bridegroom's parents.

Of interest here is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Viola Maggret, daughter of the late Mrs. Emma Maggret of Kenton, and William R. Frederick, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Frederick of Dola. The single ring ceremony was read Saturday evening, Sept. 6, at the home of the bridegroom's parents by Rev. Raymond Touvell of Ada. The couple repeated their vows before an arrangement of pink and white gladioli and fern in the presence of 40 guests.

The bride chose for her wedding a street length wool dress in a dusty rose shade with which she combined brown accessories. Her corsage was of white rosebuds. Attending the couple were the bridegroom's parents.

A reception was held following the ceremony with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom centering the table. Bouquets of flowers, ferns and lighted candles in candelabra completed the decorations. Miss Bette Hare and Miss Maxine Good, both of Marion, served.

Following a motor trip to Niagara Falls, New York City and Canada, the couple will reside in Mt. Vernon. For the last several years, Mrs. Frederick has been private secretary to Rex Kilbourn, plant engineer for the Marion Power Shovel Co.

Guests at the wedding and reception included Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Williams and sons, Lloyd Jr. and James, Mr. and Mrs. William Hawkins, Miss Maxine Good and Miss Bette Hare of Marion, Mrs. Marvin Long and daughters, Ruthanna, Thelma and Marylin, Karl Kanel, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sherman, and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Pyle of Kenton, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Maggret and son, Bernard, of Fort Worth, Texas, A. V. Yoxhimer and Mrs. Minga Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hunt of Lima, Hahler of Dola.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Frederick and son, Eddie, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Frederick of Zanesville, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Amstutz of Findlay, Mr. and Mrs. John Mankey and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Touvell of Ada, W. F. Kahler, Gene Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Obenour, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kahler, Mrs.

Spared Multiplied Tragedy

Only stormproof buildings and other precautions spared the metropolis of Miami and other cities from multiplied tragedy. Earliest surveys showed the havoc in Miami to consist chiefly of uprooted trees, smashed signs, some broken glass windows and similar damage.

Broken communication slowed news from the Fort Myers west coast district. Northward along the peninsula toward Tampa the damage appeared negligible.

The Coast Guard reported the boats in distress were the 40-foot schooner Pilar, disabled off Boca Grade with seven aboard, and the motor vessel Rita 75 miles west of St. Petersburg with four aboard. Coast Guardmen waited for daylight to send a PBY rescue plane.

As communications cleared, each incoming report showed a mounting toll of property loss. Real estate operator Mel Carr of Del Ray estimated damage there at $1,000,000. Not including that to the beach sector. Half the trees in Del Ray lay on the ground.

Damage estimates at Miami beach ranged up to $2,000,000. Swank hotel basements were full of water.

Farmer Taking 70 Cents Of Every Meat Dollar

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18—The farmer is getting about 70 cents of every dollar the consumer spends for meat compared with 51 cents in 1939, the last pre-war year, agriculture department figures showed today.

The department said, however, that it has little definite information as to how the remaining 30 cents is divided among others who share in the dollar, such as the commission agents who handle livestock sales, the packer, the wholesaler and the retailer.

A study made by the department of marketing margins for livestock and meats in 1939 showed the following division:

Farmer 51 cents, commission agent 4.3 cents, the packer 14.9 cents, the wholesaler 5.8 cents and the retailer 24 cents.

Virginian Railway Head Opposes C. and O. Merge

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18—F. D. Beale, president of the Virginian railway, said today that affiliation of the New York Central with the Chesapeake and Ohio would throttle his road and seriously hinder the port of Norfolk in its competition with New York.

In testimony before the interstate commerce commission Beale said the Virginian, a C. and O. competitor, exchanges traffic with the Central at Deepwater, W. Va. This provides the Virginian with an outlet to the west.

The affiliation of the C. and O. and the Central systems, he said, "would deprive the Virginian of this one friendly connection, would bottle it up completely, and leave it at the mercy of its two strongest competitors."

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN BUNDESEN, M.D.

Lung Disorder

The person with bronchiectasis is truly to be pitied.

In this disorder the tubes of the lungs are dilated, or stretched, and filled with infected material. The patient is consequently subject to violent attacks of coughing, during which he brings up quantities of foul-smelling sputum.

In addition, because so much of the lungs are out of service, most of the cells of the body get as much oxygen as they need for health and the whole body is impoverished. The coloring matter of the blood is lessened, and weight and strength may be lost to the extent that imbition is dull'ed and mere existence a burden.

We do not know the exact cause for this condition but apparently it may develop as an aftermath of the damage caused by asthma or chronic bronchitis.

Treatment by medical means is usually successful only in slowing the progress of the disease, not in its cure. For this reason, Dr. Earle B. Kay of Cleveland, and his co-workers, believe that medical treatment should only be used when the symptoms are very mild or when the parts of the lung involved make operative treatment impossible.

When the symptoms of bronchiectasis persist, the disorder may become disabling and may even end fatally unless the scarred, infected tissue is removed. The decision to operate on one or more lobes of the lung, in cases of bronchiectasis, depends on how much the patient is disabled, the extent of damage to the lung tissues and signs of chronic or prolonged infection.

Operative treatment consisting of removing a portion or even a whole lung was carried out on 220 patients by Dr. Kay and his co-workers. Before carrying out the operation, X-rays were taken of the lungs after lodized oil had been breathed in to make the bronchi visible in the X-ray plate. In this way, the extent of bronchiectasis was determined.

The operation was not done until the patient was in good condition. During this period, the material from the lungs was gotten rid of by what is known as postural drainage, that is, with the patient lying over the side of the bed with his head lower than his feet, so that in coughing the fluid in the lungs was brought out.

Penicillin was administered directly into the windpipe and throat and into the nose to help overcome any sinus infection which may have been present. It was given by injection into a muscle the evening before the operation.

During the operation the patient is given an injection of blood into a vein. Also, following the operation, the patient is given oxygen for twelve to twenty-four hours and penicillin by injection into a muscle every three hours for seven days. Coughing, deep breathing and changes of position are encouraged in order to keep the lung functioning. If infection is prevented, the function of the lung on the side which is operated on may be brought back to normal within two or three months.

It would seem that operative treatment for bronchiectasis in severe cases part, plainly, is worth while. The restoration of such patients to normal and useful lives is one of the great victories of surgery. Penicillin, new surgical techniques and ever-increasing skill have made intricate operation on one of the body's most vital organs not only possible but comparatively safe.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

A. B. What is Aortitis?

Answer. Aortitis means inflammation of the aorta, which is the large blood vessel that starts from the left side of the heart. The condition is produced by certain infections and is often caused by syphilis.

Word from Italy is that the communists are shouting, "Down with Truman" . . . That's carrying the Republican campaign too far.

Fortunately when the big powers get to glaring at each other at the UN there always is Franco for diversion.

They have been saying for two years "Franco must go" . . . At times they even suggest where.

It's strange though . . . Look at the way Durocher went and no argument.

School Leaders Here To Attend Conference

A special conference of city, county and exempted-village school superintendents will be held Sept. 26 in Columbus, according to a public relations report from the Ohio Department of Education at Columbus.

E. E. Holt, city school superintendent, D. T. Mills and Ivan Barnhart, superintendent and assistant of county schools are all planning to attend.

The purpose of the conference is to consider greater cooperation in the improvement of teaching in Ohio's elementary and high schools. A number of other subjects to be discussed in addition to plans for improving the teaching quality will include school lunch programs, health education, child study, veterans courses, etc.

Amvets Contribute To Children's Home

In keeping with the national Amvets juvenile program, the Glen W. Ainsworth Post No. 26 here has donated $50 to the Children's Home to be used for the purchase of indoor recreational equipment.

The donation is the first of several plans to be actually started by the local post. The Marion unit plans, as the organization increases, to spend both time and effort in helping to teach children what "Our American Way of Life" really means.

Another service offered by the post is a blood bank available to all Marionites whenever necessary. The only limitation placed on the donor service will be the number of times each donor is limited to give blood during a year.

Salary Doubled

Hannah declined to make ... race — possibly ... Robert A. Taft, Re- incumbent who co- the labor act, dependent ... of the presidential ... in 1948 — convention ... in another unaimous ... bled Hannah's salary as secretary-treasurer of the OSFL upping it to $10,000.

Another resolution adopted increased the per capita assessment on its members from two to four cents monthly.

Addressing the Ohio State Building and Construction Trades Council here last Thursday, Hannah said his resignation as assistant secretary of labor would be effective as soon as his successor was selected "from the ranks of labor." He took leave of absence from the OSFL post to serve the government.

Blames New Law

In that talk, Hannah said that "since the Taft-Hartley act has emasculated the labor department by cutting off its funds 30 per cent, I feel my usefulness in Washington is ended."

Industrial stability of the United States is necessary for the good of the entire world, Undersecretary of Labor David A. Morse told OSFL convention delegates yesterday. He said:

"Maintenance of a healthy American economy is no longer merely a matter of our self-interest. It is also matter of other peoples' lives. Starving and ill-clad millions depend upon our assistance for their very survival."

FORMER MARIONITE STRICKEN IN COLUMBUS

Mrs. Ethel Helen Harris Claimed by Death.

Mrs. Ethel Helen Harris, 44, formerly of Marion, died in her home in Columbus at 5:40 p. m. Wednesday. She had been ill four and a half months.

Born July 25, 1903, in Ironton, she was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitt. Her marriage to Walter Raymond Harris was in Greenup, Ky., in October, 1939. She lived in Marion for a time when she was a child, moved with her family to Columbus, returned to Marion for a period of about two years, then moved again to Columbus a few years ago.

Surviving with her husband are brothers and a sister, all of Marian, Chester A. Whitt, Elmer H. Whitt, and Mrs. Stella Taylor.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 2 p. m. in the Boyd and Uncapher funeral home on West Columbia street by Dr. V. E. Busler, pastor of Epworth Methodist church. Burial will be in Forest Glen Memorial park. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7:30 tonight.

Porcupine Mystery Solved by Owner

The perambulating porcupine found Tuesday noon by Joe Johnson of 421 Park street in his back yard left the Johnson chicken coop today to return to his own stomping grounds.

Vernon Sparks of 206 East Mark street called city police this morning to claim the animal. He had just returned after being out of town and found the porcupine gone from the pen at home.

Mr. Sparks brought the animal back from Michigan recently and was keeping it for a pet. He claims that unless the porcupine has a chance to manipulate the tail, there is no danger from the quills. He picks it up by the front paws and says it is quite tame.

Private Club Licenses Suspended by Board

A Marion private club and two private clubs in Kenton were among seven whose permits were suspended today by the state liquor control board, according to an Associated Press dispatch.

The Buckeye Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles club at 291 West Center street was charged with possession of gambling devices and the permit suspended for 30 days. The Loyal Order of Moose No. 428 and the B. P. O. Elks No. 157, both of Kenton, were also charged with possession of gambling devices. The permit of the Moose club was suspended for 30 days, while the 30-day suspension of the Elks club was withheld pending good behavior.

OHIO HOME BUILDERS OPPOSE GAS BANS

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 18—The Ohio Home Builders association was aligned today with opponents of the state utilities commission's ban against installation of gas furnaces in new homes, arguing that the order would impede the veterans housing program.

The association, at a meeting here yesterday, approved a resolution recommending that the ban, invoked last Saturday, be revoked, postponed or modified. The order was recommended by the Ohio Fuel Gas Company.

At a hearing last week, proponents of the gas curtailment directive predicted fuel shortages this winter because of steel pipeline shortages.

The order forbids gas for heating in new homes, stores and factories. Conversion in present heating plants is included.

A. J. Alexander of Akron, association president, said use of gas was a key factor in holding down building costs and predicted that alteration of construction plans following the commission order would entail higher costs to ultimate purchasers of new homes. Many building projects, he added, will be abandoned because of the restriction.

FIRST AID TO AILING HOUSE

—By ROGER C. WHITMAN—

Finish for Floor

Q.: I am planning to paint the floor of our farmhouse dining room with a light deck paint. I have linoleum in the center of the room, and the painting would be on the outside of that, around the room. What finish would be best to keep it clean? I intended to use varnish, then wax over the paint. But as things get very dirty, I wonder if wiping up with a damp cloth would be sufficient. I have been scrubbing the floor, but can't do that with a varnish and wax finish.

A. It would be practical to paint the floor with a durable deck enamel, followed by an appropriate wax. Varnish is not necessary. Choose a tan color that will not show dirt. Cleaning can be done with a type of wax intended for cleaning; there are several of this kind on the market. You may need to wash off bad stains when necessary, and then follow by applying a thin coat of wax, allowed to dry before polishishing. An alternative would be to use a non-rubbing type of wax. There are other finishes that you could consider. Leaflets are being sent you that will help you to decide.

Cracked, Rough Concrete Floor

Q. My cellar floor is real rough and there are cracks in it, and I would like to know what I can put on the floor to smooth it off and fix the cracks.

A. If the floor is badly cracked, it would be more practical to have a new one laid. A few occasional cracks, however, can be filled with mortar. First, widen and deepen the cracks with hammer and cold chisel, making the sides of the grooves straight. Brush out all loose cement and sand; then make the surfaces wet but do not flood —and pack with a fairly stiff mixture of one part portland cement and three parts of clean, coarse sand. Keep the patch damp for several days. If you have a terrazzo contractor in your community, he could smooth the surface by grinding it down with a terrazo grinding machine.

A Railroad Salutes the Freedom Train Which Starts Its National Tour in Philadelphia This Week

THIS week the whistles will blow and the church bells will ring in Philadelphia. For there, where our Constitution was born, the most remarkable railroad train in history is beginning a national tour — a train transformed into a rolling shrine to display the great documents on which our American freedoms are based.

As the school children of Philadelphia (and 300 other cities to come) gaze on Jefferson's draft of the Declaration of Independence, or the official manuscript of the Bill of Rights, or Lincoln's pen notes for the Gettysburg address, sober thoughts will run through the minds of their elders.

FREEDOM, as world events have taught us, isn't free like the air we breathe. It isn't from everlasting to everlasting. It was won by bitter struggle, and it can be lost with tragic ease, if we and other Americans take it for granted.

The lesson of our time is that freedom must be earned, in each generation. Either we continue to earn it, or we shall wake up some morning to find that it has slipped through our fingers, as it slipped through the hands of other people in the world. A dictatorship will have taken it from us.

IN our business hours many Americans speak of "Free Enterprise" as though it were a God-bestowed blessing. Some are surprised to find that it isn't listed in the Declaration of Independence under Mr. Jefferson's "unalienable rights."

But freedom of enterprise, like our political liberties, doesn't blow like the wind from Heaven. It must be earned. Either business, in serving itself, serves the public, or it invites strangling regulation.

It can almost be said that the measure of our success as a republic is the amount of regulation we can get along without. Judged by this standard, we have a long way to go. Does anyone believe that either the Securities Exchange Act or the Taft-Hartley Labor Bill is a tribute to our success in self-discipline?

THE duty of the business man and the labor leader is to make our economic freedoms work. This is a duty they have to the whole public, not merely to their own group or class. It is far better that these men should disclose and assail the wrongs in our system than that they should see, hear and speak no evil. Either we do our own housekeeping or an indignant electorate will do it for us.

What would have happened in the twenties, for example, if a few determined men in Wall Street had publicly denounced the iniquities then practised in the name of the Bull Market? Such an action would have broken all the rules of the Club, but the crash and the depression would have been easier, and business would have escaped a whole morass of legislation.

And what restrictions could the labor movement have avoided if some audacious leader had insisted that his union be accountable to the laws and customs of contracts?

It is taking us a long time to learn that, when we invite the devil to take the hindmost, the devil may take us all.

★ ★ ★

IN the words of Tom Paine: "Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom must bear the fatigues of supporting it."

There can be no liberty that isn't earned.

That, to us, is the import of the Freedom Train. And the Chesapeake & Ohio, which is one of many railroads over whose tracks this national shrine will pass, salutes it on the start of its historic mission. We will guard it well when it comes our way. May it have a fruitful journey!

FALL AND WINTER ACTIVITIES MAPPED

Home Demonstration Council Meets at OPS Building.

Plans for the fall and winter activities were made at a meeting of the Marion County Home Demonstration Council Tuesday afternoon at the Ohio Public Service Terminal building. Programs will include meetings on kitchen planning, district meetings, demonstrations and a series of leaders' training meetings from Child Conservation league circles and Mothers study clubs, Miss Mary Faye McMillan, county home demonstration agent announces.

Half day meetings will be held on kitchen planning in each community and there will be four district meetings to discuss buying equipment such as washers, ironers, stoves and other household articles and on the making of dress forms. These will be conducted by Miss Lucille Pepoon, extension specialist in Child Development at Ohio State university.

A leaders' training meeting will be held Wednesday at the terminal building for the making of dress forms. This will be in charge of Miss Edna Callahan, extension specialist in clothing at the university. The leaders will conduct classes in their respective communities.

Plans also were made for a rummage sale on Nov. 7, the proceeds to go toward the Minnie Price scholarship fund which has as its objective the promotion of interest in home economics as a profession and home demonstration work in particular. The scholarship fund was named in honor of the 25 years of service on Ohio of Miss Minnie Price, state home demonstration leader.

The Home Council is composed of two representatives from each of the 14 communities in Marion county. These leaders assist the home demonstration agent in making plans for and carrying out the home demonstration program. The Marion county extension service, Ohio State university and the United States department of agriculture cooperate in bringing this program, whose fundamental aim is the development of rural family life through a continuing program of education.

Dancer's Cuban Trial For Murder Postponed

By International News Service

HAVANA, Sept. 18—The murder trial of 22-year-old Patricia Schmidt was postponed to Sept. 29 and the Toledo nightclub dancer today put her low-cut "courtroom" dress back in its wrappings.

Private Prosecutor Gustavo Reno admitted that he needed more time to strengthen his case when he asked for postponement of the trial.

In accordance with Cuban procedure, however, the three-man court ruled the postponement was necessary because of illness.

Patricia, who claims to be half Oriental, is charged with fatally shooting John Lester Mee, a Chicago attorney, aboard his yacht in Havana harbor on April 8.

The dark-haired dancer already had confessed to the shooting, claiming self-defense and explaining that she "loved him too much."

Patricia discarded prison garb for the first time yesterday, and appeared in the low-cut black dress that she will wear on the stand.

...c. Anderson's Words Called ...p Sauce for 25-Cent Roasts

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
United Press Staff Correspondent

...INGTON, Sept. 18—Clinton P. Anderson, our secretary ..., can chop this dispatch into confetti and eat it on his ...und rib roast. That'll teach him not to embarrass a ...

... the gent who announced in Albuquerque, N. M., that ... for paying $1 a pound ... when we buy rib roasts ... In almost so many ... said it.

... it my next move. I ... copy of His speech in ... hand. Grabbed a ... trolly for the Arcade ... marked at this, one of ... collections of butch- ... openers in the east. Hur- ... the fruit stand where ... oranges were five cents ... pears a dime.

Passes Up Rat Cheese

... little heed to the delica- ... cents a pound and eggs 92 cents a dozen. Ignored the 65-cent roasting chickens and the 97-cent butter. And made a bee-line to the meat stands. I told the fattest butcher in the place that I wanted an economical rib roast. He said did I want the 75-cent roast, or the 80-center without so much bone?

I said I wanted the two-bit kind. Clint, he insulted me. I showed him your speech about intelligent people eating 25-cent rib roasts. And then, Mr. Secretary, he insulted you. He got red in the face and said . . .

But I shall not repeat what he said, Clint, because he got less respectful as he went along. The cheapest meat he had was brains at 39 cents a pound.

Mum on Speech

My next butcher was a skinny individual with a weary expression and I took no chances on him. I kept quiet about your speech, Clint, and asked him what was his best buy?

He said sirloin steak at 96 cents a pound. I wouldn't fool you, Clint, he said it was good, solid eating, with a minimum of bone. Rib roasts? Pha, he said. Like that. Pha! He hauled out a rib roast, Mr. Secretary and proved to my satisfaction that it was about 40 per cent bone, gristle, and suet.

This makes an 80-cent rib roast cost a good deal more per bite than a dollar steak, Clint. Any way you figure it. So I asked him did he have any meat st all for 25 cents a pound? He smiled pityingly. Cheapest meat he had was tongues, fanned out like octopus legs, at 39 cents. Special price.

Nothing for 25 Cents

"The American people still are willing to pay prices that have no relation to value," you said, Mr. Secretary. Not me. I canvassed every meat stand in the market, looking for anything at all to eat at 25 cents a pound.

Clint, I found plate beef at 59 cents a pound and cold hot dogs at ditto. Top round steak ground into hamburger was 90 cents. And you know what a cube steak is, Mr. Secretary? Tough chunk of meat the butcher attacks with a waffle iron arrangement and your wife buys on the nights there is no company? Ninety cents a pound also, Clint.

Over by the fish stands was the lowest priced meat in the place. It was mostly tallow, with a narrow streak of red in the middle. As nondescript a piece of meat as ever made a butcher hang his head. Twenty-nine cents a pound. No bargain, the man said.

So you see what you did to me, Clint. Just let me know when you eat these words. I want to send over a photographer.

Wyandot Co. Corn Needs 3 Weeks Good Weather

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, Sept. 18—An average of three weeks without any frost is still needed to "make" the Wyandot county corn crop this fall, said Wyandot County Agent S. C. Cashman, after a spot survey of corn lands over the area.

The soybean crop will need about two more weeks of good growing weather. The average first frost date for the county is Oct. 8, just three weeks away.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 18 — The wholesale price of top grade butter dropped from 84.5 to 81.5 cents a pound yesterday, but no reduction in retail prices was expected before the weekend.

25,000 SCHOOL JOBS SEEN IN SIX YEARS

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 18—Expanded school enrollment—partly occasioned by Ohio's growing "war babies"—will open some 25,000 teaching opportunities during the next six years, the Ohio Education association estimated today.

T. G. O'Keefe, OEA research director, said a record high of 1,335,000 pupils in the 1953-54 school year would yield a demand for thousands of teaching jobs.

The research director said "war babies" reaching school age in the next six years would account for the enrollment increase with other factors, including replacement of unqualified "emergency" teachers and normal turnover resulting from retirement, marriage and death.

He added that more than 1,000,000 Ohio boys and girls would be enrolled in the first eight grades and that an additional 335,000 would be registered in high schools. Combined enrollment today is 1,100,000.

O'Keefe predicted that a teaching force, expected to reach 45,000 in 1953-54, would include 30,000 elementary teachers.

First big jump in elementary enrollment is anticipated next year when the total for the first eight grades will reach 885,000, O'Keefe added.

We're celebrating
OUR 20th Anniversary

Twenty years ago, when we started this business, we adopted as our slogan—"The Home of Better Flowers." With us, it has been more than a slogan—a policy in fact, that has influenced everything we do. the flowers we raise, the flowers we buy and the flowers we sell are as near perfection as we can make them.

While we are deeply grateful to everyone who has patronized us during the past 20 years we feel like extending our special appreciation to those who came first to remain constantly with us to the present time. Our work in serving you becomes a pleasure as well, and an inspiration to continue trying to please you.

Of the Future?

With Your Continued Generous Patronage We Hope to Continue Business Indefinitely

As during the past two decades we anticipate continued growth and expansion of the Marion community. Our intention is to try earnestly to keep pace and meet every demand for "Better Flowers" as far as in our power. Only recently we re-equipped our shop with the latest fixtures obtainable for the preservation and display of flowers. Our greenhouse has been in production for some time and has great possibilities for expansion as needed.

GALION FIRM TURNS DOWN DEBATE OFFER

Rejects Plea for Public Airing of Strike Issues.

By The Associated Press

GALION, O., Sept. 18—The North Electric Manufacturing Co. today rejected a union offer of $100 to management representatives willing to publicly debate issues of four-week-old strike.

R. K. McBerty, company vice president, issued a four-paragraph statement turning down the proposal because "the company does not recognize public debate as constituting higher authority than the law."

Plant employes affiliated with the CIO United Auto Workers subscribed the $100.

The company, which makes automatic telephone switchboards, has withheld comment on specific strike issues, but contended the union failed to comply with provisions in the Taft-Hartley labor act.

The union has asked recognition for collective bargaining and wage increases ranging from 35 to 60 cents an hour.

Some 800 were affected by the strike here, and 250 at Mt. Vernon where strikers returned to work Monday after a temporary restraining order against picketing. The Kenton branch with 100 was not affected.

should and must be done by legislation."

"Our food production, great as it is," Hope declared, "will not be sufficient this year to enable American consumers to continue food consumption at present levels and send as much food abroad as we did during the last fiscal year.

U. S. Must Consume Less

"This means that if we continue to send as much abroad as we have been doing, Americans must consume less."

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson who has said substantially the same thing apparently is ready to go one step further.

He will submit a report to a meeting of the cabinet committee Monday showing that chiefly because of the prospective short corn crop this country cannot possibly meet all foreign demands being made upon it.

An indicated 22 per cent drop from last year's big corn crop has been a major factor in recent sharp jumps in the prices of grains and of meat, butter, eggs and other livestock products produced from them.

Associates said Anderson is expected to urge the cabinet committee to announce immediately that, on the basis of present production figures, this country can supply not more than 400,000,000 bushels of grain and grain products this crop year.

Wheat and flour would not exceed 350,000,000 bushels, with the remainder consisting of oats, grain sorghums and the small quantity of corn already shipped.

ENTERS NOT GUILTY PLEA

Andrew Hart Thomas, 33, of 696 Hocking street pleaded not guilty in municipal court otday when arraigned on a paternity charge and was released on $300 bond. A hearing was scheduled for Sept. 27. Charges were filed by a Marion woman and the arrest was made at 6 p. m. yesterday at his home.

FINED FOR SPEEDING

Julius T. Walker, 19, of Fleetwood street pleaded guilty today when arraigned in municipal court on a speeding charge and was fined $15 and costs. He was arrested by city police at 12:40 a. m. today on East Fairground street.

North Prairie States Report Light Snow Fall

By The Associated Press

The biggest hurricane to strike the south Florida peninsula in 10 years moved across the Gulf of Mexico today after causing millions of dollars of damage.

Across the country, in northern Idaho and western Montana, temperatures dropped to below freezing and snow fell in several communities as cool air from Canada moved into the area.

The federal weather bureau in Chicago reported four inches of snow at Cut Bank, Mont. Snow also fell in Butte, Helena and Great Falls, in Montana, and in Mullen Pass, Ida. The mercury slid to 25 at Mullen Pass; 27 at Butte and was freezing at Helena.

LEGION POST FORMED BY NEGRO VETERANS

Bird-McGinnis Sponsors New Group Here.

Officers were elected and organization plans furthered at a meeting of Marion Legion Post, Wednesday night at the Legion Dugout. The post is made up of Negro veterans who served their country in World Wars I and II and is the first of its kind to be organized in this community.

The new post has a roster of around 25 members and the charter is still open the officers announce. Veterans in Marion and the nearby communities are eligible for membership and it is expected the membership will be increased before the closing of the charter in the near future.

Members of Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162, American Legion, are sponsors of the new veterans' organization and a number were present at last night's meeting.

Craig Rogers, county Legion commander, presided and conducted the election of the following officers:

Charles H. Reese, commander; Pinkey B. Nichols, first vice commander; Henry Johnson, second vice commander; Charles Meadows, adjutant; Milton Sims, treasurer; Rev. Milton Lashley, chaplain; Charles Booker, sergeant-at-arms; Nathan J. Johnson, historian; Nathan Frazier, county vice commander.

The officers and members will be initiated and installation ceremonies conducted at a meeting Tuesday night at the Dugout with Bird-McGinnis Post members conducting the work.

MAN RESCUED AFTER 22 HOURS IN WELL

By The United Press

WARNER, N. H., Sept. 18—Barely conscious, Norman Wood, 23-year-old Sutton war veteran, was rescued from an 18-foot well today after being buried up to his waist for 22 hours by a cavein.

Trapped while working in the well, Woods was pinned at the bottom of the pit and held prisoner all yesterday afternoon and last night.

When finally rescued by 300 volunteer workers, Woods was taken 18 miles to the Margaret Pillsbury hospital in Concord.

Kept alive and warm through the near-freezing night with an oxygen mask and five electric heating pads, Woods joked nervously with his weary rescue crew and chatted confidently with his young wife.

A makeshift harness under his arms supported him and took some of the weight of the tons of gravel and rocks off his legs. Delving cautiously in 60-man shifts, townsfolk and men from nearby construction projects dug a 10-foot trench around the well so that the sides would not cave in further.

"MISS AMERICA" AND "LUCKY GUY." En route to Mexico for 10-day visit as "Miss America of 1947," 21-year-old Barbara Jo Walker stops off in Memphis, Tenn., to visit her fiance, John "Lucky Guy" Hummel, 22-year-old medical student at the University of Tennessee.

FAIRFIELD GUN CLUB BEATS METAL WORKS

Wins First Match on New Range by 85-69 Score.

Fairfield Gun club topped the Tom Clark Metal Works 85 to 69 in a trap shooting match held on the Fairfield range last night. A 25-bird event, the two five-man teams shot in the first match held on the newly constructed Fairfield range.

Located on the Williamsport road one-half mile west of the Pole Lane road, the range's single trap has been worked for several weeks by about 35 employes of the Fairfield Engineering company in the Fairfield Gun club. The two-acre range lies adjacent to the main administration buildings of the Ordnance plant just northeast of Marion.

W. E. Walters, president of the gun club, said an additional trap will soon be constructed on the range, as well as a rifle and pistol range. Already affiliated with the National Rifle association, the Fairfield club expects to join the Amateur Trap Shooters association in the near future.

The Fairfield range is open to the public, Walters said, and birds and shells will be sold at cost. The public is also invited to join the club as associate members, he said.

The range is open for practice shooting at 2 p. m. on Saturdays. Special shooting matches will be held on Sunday afternoons or on week-day evenings.

A rifle range, designed primarily for .22 caliber rifles, will soon be under construction, and a range for rifles of higher caliber is planned for the future, as is a club house.

Other officers of the Fairfield Gun club are Raymond Briggs, vice president; William Weston, secretary; and Russel Cramer, treasurer.

Columbus-Akron Train Hearing Enters 3rd Day

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 18—A hearing into the Pennsylvania railroad's proposal to abandon two day-light trains between Columbus and Akron entered its third day before the public utilities commission with noon set for adjournment.

Resumption of the hearing following today's adjournment was set "for some future date," with indications that it would be at least January. The trains will continue during the period.

The railroad presented arguments for the second consecutive day yesterday and Atty. R. H. Treffinger said the Pennsylvania case probably would be completed before noon adjournment.

FINED $25 IN COURT

Opal Marjorie Conley, 41, of 227 North State street pleaded guilty in municipal court today when charged with intoxication and disorderly conduct and was fined $25 and costs. She was arrested by city police at 12:48 p. m. Tuesday on Quarry street.

Kidnap, Beat and Rob U. S. Liquor Inspector

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, Sept. 18 — Federal authorities today joined officers of Hamilton county and nearby Dearborn county, Indiana, in an investigation of a complaint by William Grosenaud of Aurora, Ind., 44-year-old inspector for the alcohol tax division of the internal revenue department, that he was abducted, beaten and robbed late yesterday by four men who commandered his car at Lawrenceburg, Ind.

Grosenaud was found unconscious in his wrecked automobile in a ditch beside Dugan Gap road, in southwestern Hamilton county near the Ohio-Indiana line. Most of his teeth had been knocked out, his eyes blackened and his head cut with a blunt instrument, Lt. Elmer Jansen of Hamilton county police reported.

NEW DEFENSE SETUP ORDERED BY TRUMAN

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18—This country's new unified defense machinery went into operation abruptly today on radioed orders from President Truman.

The instructions sent by the President from the battleship bearing him homeward from the Rio de Janeiro conference on Western Hemisphere security came as a surprise to many top-rank officials.

Mr. Truman himself said his decision to have James Forrestal sworn in as secretary of defense yesterday instead of awaiting the Chief Executive's return, as originally planned, was because of the international situation.

This word, contrasted with an earlier explanation issued by the Navy. It said that prior to Mr. Truman's departure for Brazil it had been decided Forrestal would be sworn in about Sept. 15 "or after the President's return, unless all preliminary arrangements had been completed earlier."

Since these "preliminary arrangements had been completed" it was decided to administer the oath to Forrestal yesterday, the Navy said.

Yugoslavs Make Push Against Italian Border

By The United Press

TRIESTE, Sept. 18 — The British army command announced today that the Yugoslavs had made several "pressure plays" against British positions along the new frontier in attempts to seize patches of Italian territory.

Like the Americans who had encountered Yugoslav pressure, the British units stood fast, authorities said, and in no case was there a change in the positions fixed by the newly effective Italian peace treaty.

The Yugoslavs had sought to edge over into Italian territory at 33 of the 34 outposts held by American and British troops along the border, a survey of the situation disclosed.

Old Age Pensioners Hear Dr. Hershey

Special music by guests and members of the Old Age Pension society of Marion county, and talks by Dr. C. E. Hershey, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist church, and Morris Elperin were features of a meeting of the old age pension group Friday at the Eagles hall. The meeting opened with group singing of "America," prayer by L. D. Carwile and the Lord's prayer in unison, and salute to the Flag. Christian Ruth and William Sergent sang a duet, accompanied by Glenn Franke, one of a group of three young men from Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill., who have been conducting special evangelistic meetings at Emmanuel church.

Don Crider, and Jack MacDonald, members of the evangelistic party, together with Mr. Franke presented several instrumental and vocal numbers. Dr. Hershey sang a number and the Old Age Pension choir sang.

For his talk, Dr. Hershey took as his text the twenty-second verse of the ninth chapter of Hebrews.

Mr. Elperin, representing the CIO Council of Industrial Organization of Marion, spoke on need for cooperation of all citizens in this country to prevent economic and political downfall. Reading of The Flash, publication of the national Townsend organization, was by Arthur Hershner. William Porter gave a report on sick members, and closing prayer by Mr. Carwile followed a song by the choir.

UN

assembly's agenda Gromyko could go before the full assembly with his demand and "take the consequences of a vote."

Russia Loses Vote

When the steering committee voted, Russia lost by a count of 12 to 2 its efforts to prevent the assembly from considering Greece. This result illustrated the difficulty which the Russians now face in their further fight on the Marshall proposition — they cannot block action in the assembly or any of its committees with a veto because all decisions are reached on majority votes.

Added to this is the fact that an overwhelming majority of the assembly's 55 member nation is normally counted on to vote with America, Britain and other western powers in any showdown on an issue between them and the eastern bloc countries.

It thus appears certain from the outset that Marshall can muster easily the strength to put over the security committee plan as a means of backstopping the veto-strapped security council.

Other UN actions as the assembly closed its second day:

The 14-nation steering committee unanimously set up a special 55-nation committee to consider the Palestine question during the current assembly. Lie proposed establishment of such committee.

The U. S. delegation asked Lie to add to the agenda the proposal made by Marshall yesterday that the question of Korean independence be setiled by the United Nations rather by Russia and the United States, who have been deadlocked on the issue for two years.

Grain Market Breaks As Exports Are Cut

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 18—Wheat, corn and oats broke sharply on the Chicago board of trade today in response to announcement of large reductions in the amount of grain this country will export during November.

All wheat contracts crashed 10 cents, the daily limit, within the first few minutes of trading. All corn contracts were off eight cents, the daily limit for that grain. Oats dropped around four to five cents.

The low on September wheat was $2.67, on September corn $2.53⅞, and on September oats $1.15⅝.

The agriculture department announced in Washington last night that November exports would be held to 29,514,000 bushels of grain compared with an October quota of 45,584,000 bushels.

TAFT TO DELIVER CRITICAL SPEECH

By The Associated Press

BOULDER CITY, Nev., Sept. 18—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) puts a brief inspection of the Colorado river development behind him today in anticipation of what may be the critical speech, in San Francisco tomorrow, of his western sentiment-plumbing tour.

Before the Commonwealth club there, where the late Wendell L. Willkie's presidential campaign was born in 1940, Taft will speak on what he has predicted may become the hottest issue of the 1948 campaign—the high cost of living.

In major speeches already delivered on this excursion to the west, the Ohio senator has laid most of the blame for skyrocketing prices at the door of President Truman.

He has accused the President of doing away with all price controls too soon and has asserted that the administration laid the groundwork for an inflationary spiral in its failure to hold the line against wage increases that boosted manufacturers' costs.

The Taft schedule today called for a flying trip over Lake Mead, behind Hoover dam, a look at the Grand Canyon and his return to Los Angeles to entrain there for San Francisco.

MAYOR AT GALION SIGNS POWER ACTS

Official Acts at Request of Business Men.

Special to The Star

GALION, Sept. 18—Prom[pted] by a delegation of business and civic leaders who called at his home yesterday afternoon, Mayor William Amann affixed his signature to two controversial ordinances calling for outside electrical power and creation of a power substation for Galion.

The ordinances were passed unanimously at a special meeting of the Galion city council Friday night called by council president Otto Pfeifer to consider early action on remedying the Galion power shortage. Earlier in the week, four of the city's largest manufacturing concerns had requested city action to meet their power requirements. The companies were reported as planning to either establish individual power installation if city action failed to materialize, or leave Galion.

Mayor Amann had not indicated he would sign emergency measures, as late as Wednesday morning stating that the measures would have to become law without his signature. The ordinances were signed at 4 p. m. yesterday after the Galion businessmen had interviewed the mayor at his home.

The measures (1) authorize the city service director to advertise for bids to enter into contract for electric energy from an outside utility to supplement the supply generated by the Galion Municipal Light and Power Plant and (2) provide for the erection of a substation with a 3,000 KVA capacity to handle the increased power load that will be brought in.

Farm Machinery Unions Stop Work at Louisville

By The United Press

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 18—At least 3,200 employes of two firms stayed off the job today to attend "continuous meetings" over wage differences, but management called the work stoppages "strikes."

Approximately 1,200 Mengel Co. employes, members of the Carpenters' Union (AFL), quit at three of the firms' four plants here to attend a meeting at the labor temple downtown which began yesterday afternoon.

Earlier, International Harvester Co. employes began leaving work to meet at a union hall. By today, 2,000 employes on three shifts either walked off the job or had failed to report.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh
Yes, I'm Guilty!
Folks sometimes criticize us small-town editors for the way we often play up "little things" ahead of big . . . human, local news in place of world events.
I can't deny it. Read the Clarion and you'll learn about the Martins' golden wedding anniversary . . . about the community sing down by the river . . . the husking bee at Sober Hoskins', where neighbors helped husk the corn, and later drank sparkling beer together.
"Little things?" Maybe. But from where I sit, they add up to the bigger things we call America: The friendliness of small towns . . . the helping hand . . . the respect for one another's rights. And above all the love of fellowship and freedom—whether it's freedom to speak one's mind or choose between a glass of beer or buttermilk.
I figure that if everybody looks after the "little things," maybe the bigger things will take care of themselves.

Palm Beach Mourns Death of Beautiful Trees

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Writer

PALM BEACH, Fla., Sept. 18—If there is sadness in the death of trees, then Palm Beach is a sad place today.

Boarded and empty, the stately homes of this winter social capital of the gold coast still stand intact but its pavements are littered with corpses of famous fallen trees.

They are the royal palms known to millions of American tourists—tall, slender trees that take the wind gracefully as a bending sail.

Hal Boyle

Now they lie like granite road blocks across Royal Poncianas and Royal Palm boulevards—two of the world's beautiful streets. They are down by the hundreds and probably thousands, beaten to earth and up-rooted by winds whirling at more than 120 miles an hour.

The hurricane struck in full power yesterday against Palm Beach, a 12-square-mile sea emerald linked to the mainland by three causways.

The island is valued on tax rolls at $63,000,000.

But few of the millionaires who come here to rub elbows with multimillionaires were in their mansions, still shuttered and closed until the winter season. Palm Beach is populated chiefly by caretakers, policemen and firemen. No lives were lost here in the hurricane.

A pre-dawn motor tour of the battered island this morning found it looking pretty much like a dowager with her hair caught in an electric drier.

Every side road was blocked with trees, the car lights were blinded at times by heavy rain squalls. High velocity winds sent torn palm fronds skittering across black pavements deserted except for police patrols.

Worth avenue—the "Fifth Avenue" of society shoppers here—was tightly boarded and only a few windows in its store fronts were broken. Winds had ripped down the Bouganville vines and they rose and fell like disturbed snakes. Green coconuts rolled crazily in the streets like bowling balls on a spree.

A flash light gleaming spectrally on the Spanish type Everglades club, whose members must have blood bluer than blue, showed no signs of damage to that haven of the social elite.

Rich Club Undamaged

But the erosion of wind and waves, although sparing both of the business sections of Palm Beach, caused considerable destruction on the island section facing seaward.

"It'll take several days to learn the full extent of the damage," said Police Desk Sergeant Frank H. Young.

"Most of the clubs have lost their bath houses. The bath house north of Palm Beach pier is gone and the pier itself is in bad shape. So is Ocean boulevard."

The sea for years has been undermining sections of this famous coastal scenic drive. Patrolman Ed J. Williams said heavy waves crashing over the sea wall had littered the boulevard with boulders and cracked the pavement in a number of places. The mansion of formen Ambassador Joseph E. Davies, which cost millions is in this area.

Tree blocked roads prevented approach to many estates and to the bath and tennis clubs and the sun and surf club, two exclusive retreats which were reported to have lost many beach cabanas. The Everglades golf links and the Palm Beach Golf club looked like a series of salt water duck ponds.

Money built the fabulous homes and playgrounds of Palm Beach and money can repair the hurricane damage to them. But it will take years to replace the ruined royal palms cut down in a few hours along the stricken thoroughfares they once made green with a beauty that became a Palm Beach trademark remembered by every visitor.

Heart Attack Fatal To Mrs. Lillie Althouse, 74

UPPER SANDUSKY, Sept. 18—Mrs. Lillie Althouse, 74, widow of the late Fred Althouse, was found dead on the kitchen floor of her home Wednesday morning, by her daughter, Mrs. George Ellis of this city. Coroner J. A. Propst was called and pronounced death due to a heart attack.

Mrs. Althouse was born in Wyandot county Aug. 10, 1873. She was united in marriage in Upper Sandusky, with Fred Althouse, March 28, 1897. To this union were born three children, Hazel, wife of George Ellis of Upper Sandusky, Robert Althouse of east of little Sandusky, and Homer Althouse, deceased. Mrs. Althouse also leaves one brother, Squire Crawford of southeast of Sycamore.

She was a lifelong resident of Wyandot county. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon, with services at the Bringman & Co. funeral home at 2 o'clock, followed by services at John Stewart Methodist church in this city at 2:30, in charge of Rev. C. F. Fogle. Interment will be made in Oak Hill cemetery, near Upper Sandusky. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7:30 Thursday evening.

Free Dental Service Available to Veterans

Marion veterans who have dental disabilities resulting from service in the armed forces may now apply through the Veterans Administration for free dental care, Samuel Manning, contact representative at the local office, 196 South Main street, announced today.

Under the new ruling, veterans may apply for treatment and through an arrangement with the Ohio State Dental Society, the Veterans Administration can authorize home-town dentist to care for the patient, Mr. Manning said that a number of ex-G.I.'s had already applied for and received such treatment.

Veterans who have dental conditions which resulted from service are advised to contact Mr. Manning. Service can be given only after proper application.

Russ-West War Shifts To UN For Battle of Words, Slogans

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The war of the political isms now has two "eyes," or focal points of extreme activity, after the early manner of the great hurricane which has been moving dangerously up the eastern seaboard of the United States—one eye representing the strong-arm methods being employed in Europe and Asia, and the other battle of words waging in the assembly of the United Nations.

DewittMackenzie

The conflict in the assembly arises from a concerted offensive by the western bloc of democracies, headed by America, against the tactics of the bloc, led by Russia. The purpose of the drive is to try to center world attention on Soviet methods of conducting the world revolution for the spread of Communism. Those methods comprise not only Red aggression but studied obstruction in the UN.

Thus far the UN has been hamstrung by the persistent use of the veto by the Russians who have been playing hand-ball with this all-powerful measure which originally was intended only for great emergencies. So finally in near desperation the western democries have resorted to the tactics of putting Russia and her satellites on the spot for global inspection.

Question Efficiacy

Some observers will question the efficacy of such methods against hard-boiled opponents. Still there have been many indications over the years that the Soviet Union was anxious to be favorably regarded by the outside world. And why not, since she was trying to sell Communism? We had evidence of that desire when Moscow eagerly sought and secured reestablishment of diplomatic relations with Washington in 1933 by promising to quit spreading Red propaganda in the United States. On that basis President Roosevelt granted recognition.

Again, because of the fierce objection of many nations to the operations of the Comintern, or Third International, Moscow announced during the war that it had been abolished. Of course the work of the Comintern—which was to act as general staff for the world revolution—has continued apace. But officially it is off the books as a concession to world opinion.

By the same token Moscow some time ago raised a heavy hand from religion in Russia and permitted eager throngs to resume worship in their churches. That was a sop not only to the desires of many Russians but to world opinion, though we know that Communism remains fiercely anti-religious.

Thus we see that the generals of the western democracies have considerable reason to launch their offensive in the UN assembly. In trying to force the issue, however, they have advertised that what they want is sufficient accord to permit the peace organization to function. They would rather smoke a pipe of peace than fight.

Apropos of this, Soviet Chief Delegate Andrei Vishinsky, who arrived yesterday on the Queen Elizabeth, told reporters that while there were serious problems before the assembly he believed they could be solved successfully through "mutual understanding and good will." He added that "the Soviet delegation will spare no effort to achieve the successful solution of these problems."

Taken at face value that would be a most hopeful statement. However, the western nations will abide by the adage that the proof of the pudding is in the eating. We shall see.

Vital and controversial issues are before the UN Dr. Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil, newly-elected president of the assembly, declared in his opening address:

"It is here that the world will organize peace or hasten war. The moment is crucial x x x."

Mrs. Joe Johnson, White Cross chairman, reported that one box of supplies had been sent to an Indian college at Bacone, Okla., and that two more boxes were to be sent before the White Cross quota for the organization was complete. One new member was enrolled. The spiritual life program was given by Mrs. W. P. Glass assisted by Mrs. Vernon Trimmer. It was announced that the all-day meeting scheduled for Sept. 24 at the home of Mrs. Johnson had been cancelled.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

We're Holding Fast—
Prices Are Still Down—

In spite of all the talk of high prices—in spite of many recent price advances by manufacturers—we are still selling good, guaranteed merchandise at even less than our old OPA prices.

We pledge to you that we shall continue this policy. We shall do so because you good folks have been showing that low price and high quality will still bring in trade.

You have shown us that low prices mean more business because every month has given us the most unbelievable increases even as compared with the boom of last year.

Practically every line shown in our store has gone up 5% or more in the past few weeks, but, if you will call you will find that our prices are not higher, but lower than they were last Fall after the demise of the OPA.

Thanks, Folks! You may depend upon it we shall continue these low prices in spite of the manufacturers. So come down to the Busy Store where your money will go farther.

Come in and compare our low prices. Come in and see how we will welcome you. Learn just why Everybody says: "It Pays to Trade at

MARION POSTAL WORKERS RETURN FROM CONVENTION

Attend Annual State Meeting at Warren.

Members of Marion Branch No. 819, United National Association of Postoffice Clerks, have returned from Warren where they attended the annual convention of the Ohio State branch, over the weekend. Attending were Manford E. Layman, first vice president of the state organization, Charles L. Elicker, president of district No. 10 and Ralph Roseberry, a past president of the local branch.

A request that congress compensate postal employes $900 a year, retroactive to July 1, 1947, as a cost of living wage adjustment was incorporated in a resolution adopted at the closing session of the two-day meeting. Another resolution called for retirement eligibility at 100 per cent pensionary status for all postal employes after 30 years' service, regardless of whether they entered the service at an age younger than the average.

Cleveland was chosen for the 1948 convention. Guests included William C. Armbrust of Washington, D. C., national president, and J. O. Bouton of the third assistant postmaster general's office, and superintendent of newspapers and periodicals.

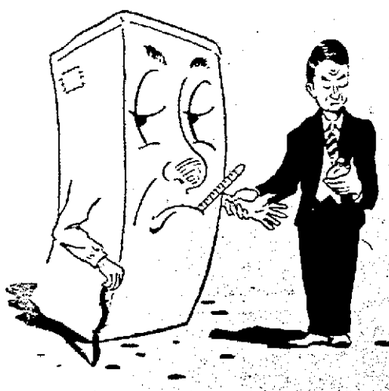
There isn't always room for one more!

We still have to say — "No changing from other fuels to gas for heating." The Gas Company regrets this action, but it is necessary in order to protect our present customers. We would like to rush this tremendous job of bringing more gas to this area, but it takes time, hard-to-get materials and experienced manpower. We continue to work day and night, to bring more gas to your community.

However, there is a bright side to every story! GAS prices continue to be low. You, who are enjoying the comfort and convenience of Gas service today, are receiving a good sound bargain. Gas prices in general are the same today that they were five or six years ago, in spite of rising costs of production. We are working toward the day when more and more of you can profit by the use of gas for heating.

IF YOU HAVE GAS HEAT —



There is no restriction on replacing old gas equipment. Have your gas heating system checked this week. Replace old outmoded burners and furnaces with modern, efficient and dependable Janitrol and Bryant Gas heating equipment. You will be helping yourself by having a more efficient heating system and at the same time you will enjoy the comfort provided by modern gas equipment. Now is the time to replace — do not wait until cold weather. Avoid a break down this winter that will cause hardship or endanger the health of your family.

Call the Heating Department of the Gas Company and ask for a free survey of your present Gas heating equipment.

"Freedom Train" Starts Journey

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18—The Freedom Train—resplendent in its red, white and blue paint—was dedicated here yesterday to the task of carrying Amer ca's most treasured historical documen's to every corner of the land

The shiny new seven-car special received the well wishes of the nation's leaders, including President Truman, who called on the people of America to share their concept of liberty with the world.

In a message read during a special radio broadcast last night by Attorney General Tom C. Clark, the President said:

"In this noble heritage of freedom for the individual, without distinction because of race or creed or color, lies the world's greatest hope of lasting peace

"Whether the areas of freedom shrink in the world or increase in the next few years depends in large measure upon how well we Americans perform our duties of citizenship."

The Freedom Train—sponsored by the American Heritage Foundation will remain here through Friday and then a tour of 309 cities

17-ACRE FLAG PLANNED AT CONSERVATION SHOW

Feat Scheduled as Part of Licking Co "Second Frontier" Exhibit.

By The United Press

NEWARK, Sept. 18—Sponsors of the "second frontier" celebration near Brownsville said today "the biggest replica of Old Glory ever revealed in the U. S" will be unfurled at the opening day, Oct. 2

Pearl L. Fogle of the U. S. soil conservation service, who is helping the Licking county soil conservation service sponsor the event, said the flag will be over 1,000 feet long and 770 feet wide. She claimed it will cover 17 acres of ground

The outdoing of Betsy Ross will be accomplished with lime spreaders, blue sacks and the red soil natural to the area. Tractor-operated spreaders will line out the white stripes, the land will make up the red, and blue sacks planted on the hillside will finish out the huge flag

Frank LePage, pastor of the Cardington Methodist church. Burial will be in Glandale cemetery. Friends may call at the late home until 12 30 p. m. Saturday when the body will be removed to the mortuary. Mrs. Levering died Tuesday at Cleveland Clinic Foundation hospital, Cleveland In the account of her death in The Star Wednesday, the last name was incorrectly given.

HEADS U. S. FIRST. New chief of staff of the U. S. First Army, with headquarters on Governors Island, N. J., is Maj. Gen. Willard G Wyman who will take over his new duties Oct. 1. Wyman commanded the 71st Infantry Division during World War II (International)

Tire Blowout Causes Collision of Two Cars

A car driven by Emily Cornell, 47, of Toledo was badly damaged as the result of an accident on route 23 south of Waldo yesterday afternoon, according to a state highway patrol report.

A tire on the car she was driving blew out as she was passing another driven by Dr. J. A. McNamara of Marion and she hit the McNamara car then going off the road crashing into a tree and telephone pole The hood and grill of the Cornell car were badly damaged, but the driver received no injuries The McNamara car was damaged slightly.

An arrest followed an accident on route 61 about eight miles south of Mt. Gilead yesterday afternoon according to the patrol. Richard Gloffilty, 19, of Akron pleaded guilty to a charge of improper registration of a motor vehicle and was fined $15 and costs by Mt. Gilead Mayor R. G. Booher last night. He was driver of a truck which ran off of the road and into a telephone pole

Former Sycamore Teacher Stricken

Special to The Star

SYCAMORE, Sept. 18—Miss Hannah Quaintance, 78, resident of Sycamore and retired school teacher, died at 5 p. m. Wednesday in Mercy hospital at Tiffin while undergoing an appendix operation. She had been in ill health four years, and was seriously ill 24 hours. Born July 25, 1871, in Crawford county, she was a daughter of Samuel O. and Mary Sheckler Quaintance.

A resident of Sycamore 14 years, she came here from Bucyrus. For 46 years, she taught in Crawford county schools She was a member of the Methodist church here, taught the Kind Words class of the church and was secretary of the missionary society. Surviving are five nieces and a nephew.

They then were required to report their actual earnings once each semester for that period. These reports were checked against the amount of subsistence authorized to determine if the combined earnings and subsistence were within the limits prescribed by law of $175 a month for veterans without dependents and $200 for veterans with one or more dependents.

VA said the new plan is part of a program to streamline procedures for paying subsistence allowances to student veterans. It is designed to save considerable time and money by eliminating the need for processing thousands of report forms during the coming school year.

38% OF VETS APPLY FOR VA EDUCATION, TRAINING

Thirty-eight per cent of the 1,614,000 World War II veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky have made applications for education and training benefits available under the G I Bill, the Veterans Administration tri-state Branch Office in Columbus O reported today.

VA officials said applications through August 31 totalled 608,095 including 303,836 of Ohio's 776,000 World War II veterans, 208,276 of Michigan's 567,000 veterans and 95,983 of Kentucky's 271,000 veterans.

VA officials said 214,907 veterans in the three states were taking education and training under the G I Bill on August 31, including 112,994 in Ohio, 78,451 in Michigan and 23,462 in Kentucky. A substantial increase is expected in the next 30 days with opening of schools and colleges for the fall term.

135,000 REINSTATE G.O. INSURANCE IN 3 STATES

More than 80 million dollars in National Service Life Insurance was reinstated during August by more than 14,000 World War II veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky, it was announced today by Veterans Administration Branch Office officials in Columbus, O.

This brings the total for 1947 to more than 135,000 reinstatements representing an insurance value of nearly 900 million dollars. VA said 68,000 Ohio veterans have reinstated 460 million dollars in insurance, 52,000 Michigan veterans have reinstated 348 million and 15,000 Kentucky veterans have reinstated $1 million.

Veterans have until January 1, 1948, to reinstate GI term insurance without physical examination. All that is necessary is the payment of two monthly premiums and a statement that the veteran's health is as good as when the policy lapsed.

VA ADVISES STUDENT VETS ON SUBSISTENCE

The Veterans Administration today advised student veterans of several steps they must take to insure prompt receipt of subsistance allowance while in school under the G I Bill.

VA Brach Office officials in Columbus, Ohio emphasized that veterans entering college for the first time must have in their possession VA certificates of eligibility. These may be obtained through any VA office.

If a veteran already has started his education and plans to change his course of study or transfer to another school this fall he should write for and obtain prior approval from the VA regional office having jurisdiction over his training. He must have a supplemental certificate of eligibility before he can be certified for such a transfer.

If a veteran changes his address he should notify VA immediately.

Those veterans enrolled in college prior to this fall and planning to continue their study at the same institution need not contact VA prior to enrollment.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q May I change the beneficiary of my GI insurance policy by a last will or testament?

A No. A change of beneficiary for your insurance policy must be made by written notice to VA over your signature and it shall not be binding unless received and endorsed by VA.

Q Has the law been passed which grants an increase to non-service-connected pensioners of Civil and Spanish-American Wars and in death compensation to their dependents?

A Yes. VA will pay a 20 per cent increase in non-service-connected pensions for veterans of the Civil and Spanish-American Wars and the same increased in death compensation to their dependents, effective with payments for the month of September.

Q I would like to appear before the VA rating board to explain my application for compensation. Will VA pay my traveling expenses?

A No. All expenses you may incur going to or from a VA rating board must be borne by you.

Feverish Building Boom Seizes Islands Forming Florida Keys

By The Associated Press

MARATHON, Fla., Sept. 18—A feverish building boom is under way along the chain of islands forming the Florida keys, where the most vicious hurricane on record spread death and destruction a dozen years ago.

From the mainland to Key West—a distance of some 122 miles—boat slips, fishing lodges, hotel rooms, apartments and homes are being rushed for what many predict will be the best season the keys have had since Henry M. Flagler built his railroad through here in 1905-1912.

The railroad is gone now—washed away by the Labor Day hurricane of 1935 that killed more than 500 persons and caused property damage estimated at $6,000,000 — but the fine overseas highway has taken its place and more people live on the keys now than ever before.

Settlers Swarm In

New settlers are coming in all the time. Some were stationed at Miami, Key West or along the keys during the war, liked it and stayed. Others came for the fishing and returned to make their homes.

Former President Herbert Hoover comes from his California home each winter for a month or six weeks of fishing.

On Jewfish Key, about midway between Key West and Miami, the Greyhound bus corporation has spent $100,000 in building the first post house in the south. Recently opened, it provides the only rest stop on the 160-mile run between the two cities.

When completed it will include 20 hotel rooms, a swimming pool, boat docks and other facilities for travelers who may want to stop off for a few days fishing and relaxation. Patterned after the Harvey houses of an early railroad era, it is but a sample of what is going on all along the keys, only recently discovered by thousands of weekend vacationists and winter visitors.

Here on Key Vaca, 48 miles north of Key West, for example, the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. is putting final touches on a modern, hurricane-proof building to house a telephone exchange. Service formerly was through the Key West exchange.

School Building Raised

A modern school building, also hurricane-proof, is beginning its second term. Money already has been raised to build a community church.

Five commercial fishing firms operate here, and dock space has been provided for 250 private fishing craft.

A trailer park with space for 100 vehicles is building, while one park already has room for 20 and is building and filling in for 25 to 30 more.

Housing accommodations that will more than double the community's 500 population have already been completed or are now under way. All are within sight of the Gulf or Atlantic or both.

Some buildings are of concrete block or stone but others are frame — anything that will provide shelter for those who flock to the keys in ever-increasing numbers.

A few "old timers" remember the Labor Day hurricane of 1935 but they're looking ahead, not back. And they're not worried.

"The hurricane? Oh well," they say, philosophically, "If it comes, we'll batten down and ride it out, or maybe get out if it looks too bad."

Birthdays Observed At Council Meeting

Members having birthday anniversaries in the present quarter were honored at a dinner preceding a business meeting of Paramount Council No. 37, D. of A. Tuesday night in the Odd Fellows hall. Covers were placed for 25 celebrants and members. Mrs. Jane Shappard was in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Mary Collins, councilor presided for the business meeting. It was announced that Mrs. Dessie Carpenter had been appointed deputy state councilor of the council by the state councilor. Mrs. Betty Coon was appointed assistant captain of the degree team. Announcement was made of a meeting of the Past Councilors association Monday at the home of Mrs. Merle Parr of Blaine avenue with Mrs. Carpenter as assistant hostess.

The area of Columbia is more than that of Germany, France, Austria and Belgium combined.

O.E.S. Group Names Officers at Galion

Special to The Star

GALION—Mrs. Arla A. Pfeifer was elected president of the Embroidery Circle of Naomi chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Tuesday afternoon, at a meeting in the Masonic Temple. Other officers chosen to serve with her are: vice president, Mrs. T. A. Johnston; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. S. D. VanMeter. Two guests, Mrs. C. J. Cornell and Mrs. S. S. Motsinger, were welcomed. Hostesses who served a supper at the close of the social hours, were Mrs. Kent Hathaway, Mrs. J. F. Blazer, Mrs. C. L. Ailes, Mrs. Paul Warwick, Mrs. Lloyd Jewell and Miss Pearl Jourdan.

• • •

The monthly business and social meeting of the Woman's Benefit Association was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Byrns, Bucyrus road. A supper was served at 7.

• • •

The committee in charge of an outing of the Lutheran Daughters of Peace Lutheran church, Monday evening, was composed of Mrs. Frank Gardner, Miss Florence Durtschi and Mrs. Herman Sautter. The gathering was held at Roadside park on Route 30-N.

• • •

There were 25 members of the Men's Brotherhood present for the September meeting which was held at First Lutheran church, Monday evening. Devotions were led by Clinton Guenther. The topic for discussion, "Parish Education," was presented by C. L. Ailes. Social hours were in charge of Wilbur Schnegelsberger, Norwood Smith, Elmer Tracht and Lawrence Schreck.

Seafood Takes to the Grill

GOOD EATIN' . . . Lobster grilled over charcoal . . .

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

There's no reason why your outdoor picnics should cease this fall just because the price of meat is beyond your budget for a party. Almost anything tastes better cooked over coals—and fish is no exception. If you live where fish is not available, try using some of the quick-frozen fillets.

An outdoor fireplace party is one of the nicest ways to entertain anybody, but teen-agers love this informal entertaining best of all. Be sure to have the proper equipment handy, in particular remembering that outdoor eating is likely to be messy. Follow the line of famous fish restaurants and provide big bibs to catch all spills (and to wipe hands on, too.) The best way I've found to achieve a really useful bib for this purpose is to use Irish linen dish towels of generous size. Cut a circle at one end to fit the neck and bind with bias binding which extends beyond the neck to make ties.

Now for the food! A lobster is, of course, the most luxurious sea food you can serve. And it's wonderful cooked this way.

Charcoal Broiled Lobster

Have the butcher prepare your lobsters for broiling at the very last minute, if you possibly can. If not, be brave and slit them open yourself, being sure to remove the stomach sac in the head and the black intesinal vein from stomach to tail. Preserve the green liver and coral roe. They're the best part of a lobster, in this writer's opinion.

Flatten the lobster, shell side down, on your grill. Brush the split side generously with butter or margarine and sprinkle with salt. Turn, broiling with shell side up for 10 to 12 minutes. Broil with shell side down approximately 10 minutes.

Lobsters need something to zip up their rather bland flavor. Of course they're served with melted butter or margarine. This may be sharpened by the addition of lemon or lime juice. Or perhaps you'd like to try adding finely chopped dill pickle or dill pickle relish. Dill has an affinity for shell fish and the pickle adds the desired sharpness to the sauce.

Charcoal Broiled Codfish Fillets

Six fillets of cod or other fish, ¼ cup butter or fortified, margarine. Salt and pepper.

Brush fillets with butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place in a closely wired hand grill, or on the grids of a close-spaced broiler. Cook over glowing coals, turning slowly, approximately 5 minutes to each side. Serve with tartar sauce.

Tartar Sauce

1 cup mayonnaise, 4 tablespoons chopped sweet pickles, 1 tablespoon chopped capers, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1 tablespoon finely chopped onions or chives, 1 tablespoon tarragon vinegar.

Chill mayonnaise thoroughly. Combine all ingredients just before serving.

Broiled Fish Steaks

Have steaks of cod, halibut, salmon, or what you will, cut at least an inch thick. Broil in the same way you do fish filets, allowing approximately 8 minutes for each side. And here's a good spicy sauce to go with them:

Spicy Sauce

½ cup butter or margarine, 2 teaspoons catsup, 2 teaspoons Worcestersaure sauce, ½ teaspoon paprika, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon liquor from sweet pickles, 1 clove garlic, cut in half, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon black pepper, ¼ cup chopped sweet pickles.

Combine all ingredients, except pickles, in top of double boiler. Place over boiling water. Stir constantly 2 minutes until fat is melted and mixture thickens. Take from fire. Remove garlic. Add pickles.

The water must be boiling

Scald a crockery teapot. Put in one teaspoonful of tea or one tea-bag for each person. Add fresh, "bubbling" boiling water. Steep for five minutes. Stir, then serve.

ST. MARY TO PLAY LIMA ST. ROSE AT STADIUM TONIGHT

Irish Set for Tough Contest In First Appearance at Home

Showing their 1947 brand of football for the first time at home, the Irish meet their traditional rivals, Lima St Rose, on the Stadium gridiron at 8 p m

Lima might easily turn out to be St Mary's toughest opponent of the year, says Irish Coach Eugene Fetter.

Always tricky, the St Rose squad this year boasts a double barreled passing threat in their two halfbacks, Mulcahy, rifling the pigskin with his right arm, and Lawlor tossing with his left Lanky Lima right end Williams pulls them down from a height advantage of six feet four inches

First for St Rose

St Rose hasn't had a chance to show their stuff in a regular game yet, but took nearby Elida High school, 13-0, in a practice scrimmage recently And Elida, unbeaten for two years and victors in their first 1947 game last Friday, is no touch

The Irish polished up their pass defense in practice this week, hoping to tighten up the net that last week intercepted two Delaware Wills passes and held the Panthers to one completion in seven tries

St Mary has the edge in experience, but average a few pounds lighter

Ten lettermen returned to the Irish squad this year, while St Rose saw but six, only two of them regulars

Last year the two teams tied 6-6

Reporting a satisfactory advance sale of tickets, Floyd H Connely, of the sponsoring Knights of Columbus, looks for a good crowd tonight in the first of the three home games scheduled by St Mary On Oct 4, St Mary meets Richwood They take on Mt Gilead at home Nov 7

Probable starting lineup for St Rose ends, O'Connor and Williams, tackles, Pearson and Frey, guards, Fillmart and Guagenti, center Gordde, quarterback, Aures, halfbacks, Mulcahy and Lawlor, and fullback, Korn

Irish quarterback Dick Schuler, out of the lineup earlier this week with a knee injury sustained in the Delaware game, probably will be ready to start for St Mary tonight

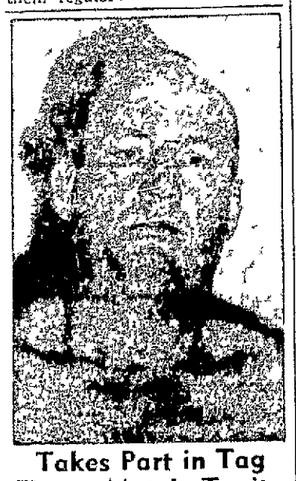
Slated to be introduced to fans at the half time intermission are parents of the St Mary gridders Either Coach Gene Fetter or Bob Axe, president of the St Mary Booster's club, will lead the half time program



Takes Part in Tag Team Match Tonite

Dutch Schultz, the tough Texan and Frankie Clemons, the Michigan Indian boy will do their best tonight to try and take the scalps of Buck Weaver and Billy Weidner in the tag team match at the Marion Armory. These types of matches are always popular for they produce some of the best action seen in wrestling as the partners can tag each other throughout the match which means there are two fresh men in the ring at all times The main go will be two hours, best two out of three falls. Before the main event there are two warming up matches of thirty minutes each in which Dutch Schultz will wrestle Billy Weidner and Frankie Clemons will tackle Buck Weaver.

A 10-minute prelim at 8 30 between Wally Hale and Butch Patterson opens the show. Prices (all taxes) Gen 75 cents, Ringside $1 00 and kids 50 cents. Call 2745 after six for seats — Adv

PREXIES SEE CHANCE FOR GRID VICTORY

Host to Columbus South Team Which Bowed to Earlier Harding Victim.

When the referee's whistle starts activity at Harding stadium at 8 p m tomorrow night two victory-hungry schoolboy elevens will clash

Both Harding Presidents and Columbus South Bulldogs had fruitless seasons last year, and, although both made good showings in their first game this year, neither crashed the win column

Harding, suffering fumblitis dropped a 12-0 decision to Fostoria, while Columbus South almost, but didn't quite, beat Upper Arlington, bowing 14-13.

Results of the South-Arlington game gave Prexy morale a boost, because the locals trimmed Arlington 48-6, in a pre-season practice game

Conditions were somewhat different in that scrimmage however. Harding Coach Pete Howison reports that Arlington used five men to start against South, who didn't start against Harding Also, the scrimmage was longer than a regular game

Howison believes, however, that his boys will be able to muzzle the South Bulldog Although front line tackling wasn't up to par against Fostoria not much was lacking in the other departments so South should be in for a rough evening Practice this week has been devoted to improving the team's defensive play

Diz Dean To Pitch Season's Last Game For Cellar Dwellers

By The Associated Press

ST LOUIS, Sept 18 — Jerome Herman (Dizzy) Dean, who's been talking about St Louis Brownie pitching from a broadcasting booth all season, has signed a contract to get out on the mound for a one-game appearance with the American league cellar dwellers.

Brownie Manager Herald "Muddy" Ruel said at Boston he would use Dean on the last day of the season against the Chicago White Sox (Sept 28) "providing the White Sox are assured of their place in the race and we are assured of ours"

"If either team has a chance to gain or lose a place, I doubt that using Dean would be the proper thing to do" he added

As usual with major league contracts, the salary was not announced, but dean declared it's the best contract I ever got since it's the first one I haven't sent back for more money'

Forbes Chief Wins "Jug"

DELAWARE, O, Sept 18— Forbes Chief, fast stepping sidewheeler, boosted the title of 1947 champion of three-year-old pacers today after annexing the second Little Brown Jug classic in two straight heats both in 2 05

The pride of Newport stock farm at South Plainfield, N. J., Forbes Chief took topmoney of $19,100 in the harness event at the Delaware county fair here yesterday.

Owned by Octave Blake, president of the Grand Circuit, Forbes Chief was driven by Del Cameron of Boston who piloted the favored winner to the front in stretch drives

Second money of $9,550 went to Goose Bay, brown colt from the Saunders Mills stables of Toledo He was driven by Jame Manoney

Veteran H M (Doc) Parsnall of Urbana, O, was pocketed in the first heat and finished ninth with Marcellus, owned by O L Mears of Toledo He was third which brought $5,730

Shamrock Joe, from Shamrock farms of Frankford in Delaware county, was third in each heat for fourth place and $1 910. Poplar Bird of Poplar Hill farm of Lexington, Ky, was fifth and another $1,910

Forbes Chief took off with speed to burn, passing the lead horse in both heats in the middle of the stretch to win handily by a length and a half.

The top three-year-old sidewheeler of the year was boss all the way in the second and decisive heat although the Miracle had taken the front around the first turn and was held there until passing the judges stand the first time.

The biggest thrill of the classic was given the 28,500 harness fans in the first heat at the jammed picturesque fair grounds oval.

That brush saw the speedy but notoriously ill-behaved Goose Bay almost left at the barrier but come from far back in the field with a surging stretch drive that failed to catch Forbes Chief by a single length

Blake's colt thus added his name to that of Ensign Hanover as winner of the highly prized jug The trophy was accepted, in the owners absence, by Sen. Albert Hawkes of New Jersey

Forbes Chief paid $4 40 in the mutuels to win the first heat and $3 60 in the second dash

Hallelujah, Marion entry owned by Chuck England and driven by Walter Dispanette, finished eighth in the first heat, tenth in the second

5 VETERANS RETURN TO LA RUE GRID TEAM

Five lettermen are among the 24 candidates for the LaRue six-man football team preparing for the opening game of the season tomorrow afternoon against Claridon on the high school field at LaRue.

The five are Don Ledman, end, Burke Ballinger and Bill Buyer, quarterbacks, Marion Lightfoot, halfback, and Ralph Wilson, fullback. Other promising boys who may crash the starting lineup are Harold Brocklesby, end, Richard Lee and Bob Lingo, center, and Joe Fletcher, backfield.

Other members of the squad are Gene Wittbslager, George Daniels, Tom Guthery, Edward Outland, Gail Reebel and Dan Miller, ends; Tom Lee and Rueben Messenger, centers; Grover Wall, quarterback; and Russell Millisor, Jack Millisor, Gale Price, Lawrence Smith and Don Tate, backs.

The starting six will average about 155 pounds and another good year is expected from the west side footballers.

The complete LaRue schedule follows:

Sept. 19, Claridon; Sept. 26, Prospect; Oct. 3, at Johnsville; Oct. 10, at Caledonia; Oct. 17, Chesterville; Oct. 24, at Bloomdale; Oct. 31, at Howard.

Perfection Steel Wins Galion Softball Crown

GALION, Sept. 18 — Perfection Steel Body softball team was hailed today as winner of the championship playoff series of the Industrial league in Galion. The team won, 8-1, over Galion All Steel on the East Side field Wednesday night.

Dean Smith pitched a one-hit game for the champions. The game was the second and last of a three-game series, Perfection having won the first game.

Brooklyn Can Sew Up Pennant Today If They Win, Cards Lose

By The Associated Press

The Brooklyn Dodgers, only a couple of steps away from becoming the official opponent of the New York Yankees in the fall classic which gets under way at the Yankee stadium Sept. 30, proved conclusively that they were the best ball club in the senior circuit when they knocked St. Louis out of the race last week right in the Cardinals' own lair.

All season long, the Dodgers were forced to listen to that same old plaint, "the Cards are the best ball club in the league."

But what the experts and fans failed to see was that the Dodgers had a bunch of stars in their own right. Six of their first nine were selected on the National league's All-Star team back in July.

Reserves Are Best

Then the Brooks' reserves are rated the best in baseball.

The Dodgers can clinch the flag today provided they win and the Cards lose. They opened up a nine and half game bulge last night in defeating the Pirates, 4-2, in Pittsburgh while the Boston Braves were shelling the Cards, 10-5, in St. Louis. Any combination two can sew it up now. The Brooks have nine games left to play and the Cards 12.

The battle for second place in the American league continued to wax hot as the Boston Red Sox moved into the spot, a half game to the good of Detroit. The Red Sox split their doubleheader with St. Louis while the Tigers dropped both ends of theirs to the Athletics in Philadelphia.

After losing the opener to the Browns, 9-4, despite a three-run homer by Ted Williams, his 30th, the Red Sox won the second when righthander Joe Dobson pitched a one-hit 4-0 shutout.

The Athletics knocked the Tigers out of second place when they beat the Bengals, 6-4 and 8-6, coming from behind in each game to win.

Allie Reynolds boosted his chances of hurling the World Series opener for the New York Yankees when he pitched his team to a 5-0 win over the Chicago White Sox in the Yankee stadium. His 18th victory.

Al Gettel hurled a six-hit 7-0 shutout for Cleveland at Washington to move the Indians within a game of third place.

Johnny Mize rapped out his 48th and 49th home runs of the season to tie Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh for the major league lead as the New York giants divided a doubleheader with the Cubs in Chicago. The Giants won the opener, 9-5, and the Cubs took the second game slugfest, 12-10.

Johnny Vander Meer pitched his second successive four-hitter for the Cincinnati Reds as he shut out the Philadelphia Phils, 12-0, in Cincinnati.

First Plans Made For City Softball Series Next Week

Initial plans for the Little World Series, annually Marion's biggest softball event, have been announced by Bob Minard, secretary of the city softball commission.

Tentatively the series will start next week at Crystal Lake park. How early in the week it will be able to start depends on the outcome of the Schlairet Transfer-Moose lodge game which will be held tomorrow night at Crystal Lake.

Schlairet and Moose are meeting for the Commercial league championship, Schlairet needing a win tomorrow night to clinch things and Moose needing to win two in a row.

Drawings for the Little World Series have been made by leagues. The Sunday School league winner, Trinity, will play the Industrial league winner, Commercial Steel, in the first game of the event.

The winner of this game will then take on the Commercial league champion. Losers will be dropped to the loser's bracket of the series and one more loss will eliminate them.

Two games are planned each night of the affair. One will be a Little World Series match and the other will be between a pair of teams that have been active in city softball this season, but did not earn a spot in the play-offs.

Admission will be charged to the games. Four umpires will handle each play-off engagement.

ST. MARY STUDENTS STAGE "PEP RALLY"

St. Mary students staged a pep rally last night led by Irish Coach Gene Fetter and a full team of cheerleaders.

Promising to beat St. Rose tonight anywhere from two to 10 touchdowns, the St. Mary squad was introduced to rallying students and fans gathered behind the school.

Eleven cheerleaders, nine of them girls and two boys, gave fans a taste of what's expected from the stands tonight as the Irish battle Lima St. Rose in the first of the three St. Mary home games.

Bob Axe, president of the St. Mary Booster's club, announced that St. Mary fans are invited to the school after the game to meet both football teams and to dig into refreshments which will be served. The Booster's club, sponsors of the feed, are expecting about 500 fans to turn up.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press

Pitching. Joe Dobson, Red Sox—Pitching a 4-0 one-hit victory over the Browns, a broken bat looping fly ball single by Wally Judnich in the seventh inning robbing him of a no-hitter.

Batting. Barney McCosky, Athletics—Got five hits in eight times at bat, scored two and drove in two runs to lead the A's to a double victory over the Tigers. The scores were 6-4 and 8-6

Buckeyes To Stage Realistic Football In Scrimmage Tilt

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 18—Ohio State's gridiron gladiators—the halt and the lame included—will partake of some realistic football under game conditions Saturday when Coach Wes Fesler reviews three new formations.

The former Buckeye All American, beginning his first year as head mentor, exuded optimism over his proteges' when he announced the Saturday scrimmage.

"The boys may not execute their plays with the utmost precision against Missouri (in the opener Sept. 27) but they certainly must be credited with a five-star job in learning them. The scrimmage will show just how far along we are."

Fesler said there would be four college officials working the weekend training chore, E. C. Krieger, Lowell Wrigley, C. O. Dollings and Joel Burghalter.

Flowers Brighten Fall Exhibit By Garden Club Unit

Fall flowers in brilliant and the softer hues combined to transform the Harding hotel ballroom into a colorful picture for the autumn flower show held Wednesday afternoon and night under the sponsorship of the House and Garden unit, assisted by the Green Thumb and Town and Country units of the Marion Garden club. More than 200 persons visited the show for which no admission charge was made.

All the exhibits received warm praise from the visitors and judges, the latter being Charles Plummer of Columbus, and Homer Messenger of Marion. An exhibit which proved popular with the visitors was the garden wedding setting on the ballroom stage. Enclosed with a stone wall the setting was of ferns with contrasting bouquets of white gladioli. Completing the picture were the bridal bouquet of white glads and the attendants' bouquets of deep red gladioli tied with ribbon in shaded tones of red.

The display included flowers, fruits and vegetables in varied and unsual arrangements.

Mrs. A. W. Kette was general chairman for the show assisted by the following chairmen: Mrs. U. A. Nystrom, staging; Mrs. Dale Hughes, entries; Mrs. W. C. Haldeman, classification; Mrs. Harry J. Mautz, schedule. Mrs. W. N. Harder and Mrs. James Ralston served as clerks.

MASON IS DIRECTOR OF BROADCASTERS' GROUP

Marion Man Elected at Atlantic City Convention.

Robert T. Mason, WMRN president, was among eight directors named to the governing body of the National Association of Broadcasters, according to an Associated Press report from Atlantic City, N. J., today.

Mr. Mason was among those representing a small standard station. The new field of broadcasting, frequency modulation, gained representation for the first time yesterday when two representatives were elected to the board.

He also is a member of the NAB small market stations committee, the broadcasters measurement bureau board and the music advisory committee and is a past president of the Ohio Association of Broadcasters.

Mr. Mason left Saturday to attend the four-day convention which ends today. Miss Madge Cooper, of the WMRN staff also attended the session.

Four Applications Received by Eagles

Four applications were received at the meeting Wednesday night of Buckeye Aerie of Eagles. The applicants will be initiated Sept. 28 in the Otto Eibling class.

Charles Way and Howard Wharton were installed as trustees at the meeting. Harry Mounts and Bertram Gilmore, were installing officers. Verl Bennett and K. E. Richards of Bellefontaine were guests. Lee Collins, entertainment chairman, announced plans for a program to be held in the social rooms tomorrow night.

FINED IN COURT

Paul Wilford Thompson, 30, of 675 West Center street pleaded guilty in municipal court Wednesday when charged with disorderly conduct and was fined $15 and costs. He and Ernest Leroy Columber, 28, of 383 Fies avenue were arrested by city police at 12:46 a. m. today on Hocking street. Columber, charged with intoxication and disorderly conduct, pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs.

GEORGE ISOM IS WINNER OF ACHIEVEMENT CONTEST

Takes First in Event Sponsored by Y.M.C.A.

George Isom of 124 East Mark street was winner of the recently completed Y.M.C.A. achievement contest, it was announced today.

The contest was started July 8 for the purpose of developing Y members interest in athletics, good health, hiking, working at home, religion, conduct, and community work. First prize was a new bicycle.

William Alexander of 270 Olney avenue placed second in the contest, Gerald Isom, brother of George, placed third; and Tommy Taylor of 222 Orchard street placed fourth.

The contest winners were decided by which boy could accumulate the greater number of points through meeting certain requirements set up by the Y. Points were awarded for attendance at the tennis courts, learning to swim, going on hikes, working at home, attending Sunday school, good conduct at the Y, earning and giving $1 to the world youth fund, learning the origin and history of the Y, securing a new member, and for knowing the rules of good health.

DISCUSSES PUBLIC HEALTH AT C. OF C. MEETING

Smoke and Excessive Noise Draw Objections.

General discussion of public health was held at the luncheon meeting of the Civic Affairs Committee of Marion Chamber of Commerce held Wednesday noon at the Y. M. C. A.

Henry Krigbaum, general chairman was in charge. Earl Andrews, chairman of the building code sub-committee, reported they were investigating a new standard code and comparing it to the proposed new code for Marion. A final report will be given at the next meeting.

A study of hospital management, referred to the board of directors, will be held at the next meeting. It was reported that a number of Marionites have complained of the smoke and excessive noise in the residential districts. "Uptown Traffic" will be the topic under discussion at the next meeting.

MARION AREA STORK NEWS

GALION—A daughter was born at City hospital Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley D. Ritz of 642 South Market street. Announcement of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. William Salerno of Cleveland at the Huron Road hospital Sept. 16 was received here by Mrs. Salerno's mother, Mrs. Marie Derfler.

Hawkins Bound Over On Charge of Assault

James Edward Hawkins, 26, pleaded guilty in municipal court today when charged with assault with intent to wound and was bound over to grand jury on $500 bond.

He was arrested by city police at his home Tuesday at 7:20 a. m. and charged with stabbing Mrs. Irene Berry, 37, last Friday.

The knife attack climaxed a quarrel between Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Hawkins at the former's home 744½ Fairfield street. Police said Hawkins entered the fight between the two women after his wife apparently slapped the other woman. Mrs. Berry was admitted to City hospital for treatment of the chest wound and her condition is reported to be "fair" today.

SCOOTER RIDER FINED

Walter King Mathiot, 22, of 348 Brightwood drive was fined $15 and costs and given a 30-day suspension of driving rights after he pleaded guilty in municipal court today when charged with reckless driving. He was arrested by city police at 12:25 p. m. yesterday on West Center street. Owner of a motor scooter, Mathiot was arrested on a similar charge about three weeks ago.

THREE FINES SUSPENDED

Harold Edward Murphy, 32, of Gary, Ind., Albert Max Heindorf, 42, and Nicholas Michael Radke, 37, both of Milwaukee pleaded guilty when charged with trespassing and were fined $50 and costs each. Fine and costs were suspended providing they left town. They were arrested at 3:12 p. m. yesterday by Erie police in the railroad yards.

7 KILLED, 6 MISSING IN TOKYO TYPHOON

By International News Service

TOKYO, Sept. 18—The Japanese Kyodo news agency reported tonight that a typhoon had struck the Tokyo area. It said seven were killed and six were missing.

In the meantime the United States Army launched a gigantic rescue mission today in an attempt to save thousands of Japanese marooned by typhoon-caused floods which have swept over Honshu island all week.

Late reports on casualties ranged over the 3,000 mark including two American soldiers, with figures still incomplete and not officially verified.

The home ministry's latest official summary—admittedly not complete—listed a total of 2,883 Japanese dead, missing or injured. This included 570 known drowned or otherwise killed, 1,921 missing and 392 injured.

The U. S. First Calvary division, veteran of many an amphibious landing in the Pacific war dispatched a squadron of engineers in a truck convoy to the aid of refugees in Saitama prefecture, north of Tokyo, where the floods created their worst havoc.

Juneau Ave., Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Ina Porter, residing at 3400 Cascadia Drive, Glendale 5, California, Jane Fowler, residing at 305 Cove Street, Daytona Beach, Florida, unknown persons who would be entitled to inherit from Floretta Allmendinger, deceased, under the statutes of descent and distribution if she had died intestate, will take notice that on the 21st day of August 1947, Earl Kennedy, as Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Floretta Allmendinger, deceased, filed his petition in the Probate Court of Marion County, Ohio, in Case No. 16878, against the above named parties and others, praying for an order to sell the real estate of said Floretta Allmendinger, deceased, to carry out the provisions of the last Will and Testament of said Floretta Allmendinger, deceased, and to pay legacies set forth in said Last Will and Testament.
Said real estate is described as follows:
Tract No. 1:
Situated in the City of Marion, County of Marion and State of Ohio, bounded and described as follows:
Being a part of lot Number Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829) in Wallace and True's Second Addition to the City of Marion, Ohio, and bounded and described as follows:
Beginning at a pipe at the northwest corner of said Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829) at the intersection of West Church street and Orchard Street, in said City of Marion; thence east on and along the North line of said Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829) and the south line of West Church St., sixty-eight and two tenths (68.2) feet to a bar, the northeast corner of said Lot; thence south on and along the east line of said lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829), one hundred forty-one (141) feet to a bar in the east line of said lot; thence west on a line parallel to the north line of said Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829), sixty eight and two tenths (68.2) feet to a bar in the West line of said Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829), and the East line of said Orchard Street; thence north along the west line of said Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829) and the east line of Orchard Street, one hundred forty-one (141) feet, to the place of beginning.
Tract No. 2:
Situated in the City of Marion, County of Marion, State of Ohio:
Being a part of Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829) in Wallace and True's Second Addition to the City of Marion, Ohio, and bounded and described as follows:
Beginning at a Bar in the West line of said Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829), which Bar is One Hundred Forty-one (141) feet South of the Northwest corner of said Lot Eight Hundred twenty-nine (829), thence east on a line parallel to the north line of said Lot, sixty-eight and two tenths (68.2) feet to a Bar in the East line of Said Lot Eight Hundred twenty-nine (829); thence South on and along the east line of said Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829), forty two (42) feet to a bar, which bar is nine (9) feet north of the southeast corner of said Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829); thence west on a line parallel to the north line of said Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829), sixty-eight and two tenths (68.2) feet to a bar in the west line of said Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829), and the east line of Orchard Street; thence north along the west line of said Lot Eight Hundred Twenty-nine (829), and the east line of Orchard Street, forty-two (42) feet to the place of beginning.
Tract No. 3:
Situated in the City of Marion, County of Marion, State of Ohio:
Being a part of Lot Eight Hundred thirty (830) in Wallace and True's Second Addition to the City of Marion, Ohio, bounded and described as follows:
Beginning at a pipe at the Southwest corner of said Lot Eight Hundred Thirty (830), and in the East line of Orchard Street; thence north on and along the west line of said Lot Eight Hundred Thirty (830) and the East line of Orchard Street forty-four (44) feet to a bar, in the West line of said Lot Eight Hundred Thirty (830); thence east on a line parallel to the south line of said Lot Eight Hundred Thirty (830), one hundred twenty-one and sixty-seven hundredths (121.67) feet, east of the southwest corner of said Lot Eight Hundred Thirty (830); thence south on and along the South line of said Lot Eight Hundred Thirty (830), one hundred twenty-one and seventy six hundredths (121.76) feet to the place of beginning.
A strip of land five (5) feet in width off of the north side of said above described tract and extending a depth of 121.67 feet from the East line of said Orchard Street, is to be used in connection with a strip of land 5 feet in width, and a depth of 121.67 feet in depth off of the south side of the tract of land lying immediately North of the tract herein described, to make a strip ten (10) feet in width, to be used for driveway purposes by the owners of said adjoining tract, their heirs and assigns.
Also, the right to use, for driveway purposes only, a strip five (5) feet wide, being the North half of the above mentioned driveway. The cost of maintaining said driveway, ten (10) feet wide, in good repair, shall be borne equally by the owners of said adjoining tracts, their heirs and assigns.
Tract No. 4:
Situated in the City of Marion, County of Marion and State of Ohio:
Being the north half of the north half of in Lot Number Sixty-two (62) in the Village (now City) of Marion, Ohio.
Also, the following, to-wit: Commencing at the center of the North half of said In Lot Number Sixty-two (62), in the West line thereof; thence on the west line of said Lot, south twenty-seven and three fourths (27¾) inches; thence east parallel with the north line of the South half of the north half of said Lot, thirty-two (32) feet; thence north parallel with the West line of said Lot, nine and three-fourths (9¾) inches; thence east parallel with the north line of the south half of said Lot, twenty (20) feet; thence north parallel with the West line of said Lot, eighteen (18) inches to the south line of the north half of the north half of said Lot; thence west parallel with said north line of said Lot, 52 feet to the place of beginning, containing one hundred and four (104) feet, be the same more or less, but subject to all legal highways.
The undivided one half of tract 4 belonged to decedent, Floretta Allmendinger.
Said parties are required to answer on or before the 1st day of November, 1947.
Earl Kennedy, as Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Floretta Allmendinger, deceased.

Court Disallows Will Of Kenton Air Victim

By International News Service

DAYTON, Sept. 18—The will of Muriel A. Talbot, who was killed in a plane crash near Kenton while returning from the Cleveland Labor Day air races, was denied probate in Montgomery county courts yesterday.
Probate Judge Rodney M. Love disallowed the will because Miss Talbot was only 20 years old when the will was made June 23, 1945. Judge Love appointed her father, Willard Talbot, as administrator of her estate, which is valued at $25,000.

LOVE'S PERILOUS PATH

By ADELE GARRISON

AT NOLL'S question it was all I could do to restrain an answer which would have betrayed my overwhelming resentment against him for his unreasoning and arrogant attitude toward Mary's going on with her theatrical work in which he had proved herself so signally

But from somewhere within me I summoned enough stoicism to answer him calmly.

Yes, she has been resting and she is not in the least worn out Indeed, Aunt Katharine has given her permission to go out dining and dancing tomorrow night with you and Uncle Dicky and me Uncle Dicky's giving the party

"That—that—is very nice of him" Noel stammered, evidently trying hard to 'remember his manners' Then he added an anxious postscript "But are you sure she is strong enough for an outing like that?"

'If Aunt Katharine had any doubt about it, you may be sure she never would have let Mary accept my husband's invitation" I said a bit stiffly "But that is not why I called you Something has come up which makes it necessary that I see you before Mary does tonight Will it be possible for you to come to my studio at five-thirty?"

'I'll make it possible," he said with decision

"Thank you," I told him Goodbye'

At Madge's Side

Dicky was at my side as I hung up the receiver, and pulled my arm high above my head

"The winnah and champeen!" he intoned then changed to a bantering tone

'I guess you told him!" he said "But whats all the shootin' for, anyway' I suppose he was beefing about the party tomorrow night but there must be something else hung out on the line for beating"

'There is," I said "And I don't think he's going to make any fuss about the party"

He'd better not!" Dicky threatened Unless he wants to have his little britches taken down for an old-fashioned spanking!"

I giggled at the picture his word called up and Dicky glowered at me

"And don't you think I wouldn't do it, if the spirit moved me" he said

"I don't doubt it" I assured him hastily 'But the party isn't what's troubling me I'm not asking to see him about that"

"What then?" he queried and I glanced at my wrist watch

'I'll have plenty of time to tell you if you have plenty of time to listen I said 'Katharine is going to make Mary rest before her next study period"

"I have all the time there is now that blasted drawing's delivered, he said "Sit down here and get what's troubling you off your chest"

He drew two chairs opposite each other put me in one and took the other himself

Understanding Sympathy

"You're taking whatever it is rather to heart," he said, with understanding sympathy, as his eyes searched my face

"Yes, I am,' I replied, and then plunged into an account of what Mary had told me of Noel's comments during the breakfast talk they had had about possible parenthood

"Mary said at first she hadn't thought much about those comments,' I said when I had finished, 'but that now she thought they made up a pattern"

Dicky's face was something like that of an angry turkey gobbler

'I'll say it makes a pattern!" he declared 'The nincompoop! I'll make him into a pattern of mince meat only I won't have to His father will see to him He'll do the job with finish and aplomb, also verve"

'But I don't want that Dicky" I said 'Don't you see that if Noel is coerced into abandoning a belief he has cherished, it will make not only Noel but Mary most unhappy'"

Sees the Point

"Noel's unhappiness wouldn't cause me to lose a single wink of sleep" Dicky declared 'But Mary is something else again, and I see your point But tell me what is Mary's attitude on all this? Surely she isn't falling for all this jollier consomme'"

'She is and she isn't' I told him and then went on with a verbatim account of what Mary had said to me

'She's got the right idea" he said 'Of course she can have a child and her place in the theater also But Noel can make it hell for her if he isn't stopped'

'That's what I'm planning to do," I said to stop him if I can
